Prizing Scottish Literature Stevie Marsden, 2021-02-15 This cultural history of the Saltire Society Literary Awards demonstrates the significance the awards have had within Scottish literary and cultural life It is one piece of the wider cultural award puzzle and illustrates how far from being parochial or niche lesser known awards whose histories may be yet untold play their own role in the circulation of cultural value through the consecration of literary value The study of the Society's Book of the Year and First Book of the Year Awards not only highlights how important connections between literary awards and national culture and identity are within prize culture and how literary awards and their founding institutions can be products of the socio political and cultural milieu in which they form but this study also illustrates how existing literary award scholarship has only begun to scratch the surface of the complexities of the phenomenon This book promotes a new approach to considering literary prizes proposing that the concept of the literary awards hierarchy can contribute to emerging and developing discourses pertaining to literary and indeed cultural prizes more broadly Brexit and Beyond: Nation and Identity Daniela Keller, Ina Habermann, 2021-03-08 This volume explores the cultural significance of Brexit situating it in debates about nation and identity Contributors to this collection seek to contextualize Britain's decision to leave the EU and to assess its reverberations in language literature and culture Addressing such aspects as British exceptionalism myth making medievalism and nostalgia contributions range from travelogues Ladybird books and rural cinema going to ageing An important focus lies on marginalized groups and geographical fringes as contributors attend to the Irish situation and the scarcity of EU migrants in Brexit literature BrexLit Finally two essays widen the perspective to assess American parallels to the discourses about a Brexit that is still far from done
