Integrated Marketing Communication (IMC) is a strategic approach that seeks to unify and coordinate all marketing communication tools, avenues, and sources within a company into a seamless program. This program aims to maximize the impact on consumers and other end-users at a minimal cost. IMC integrates various promotional elements such as advertising, public relations, direct marketing, social media, and sales promotion, ensuring consistency of messages across all channels. The primary goal is to ensure that all messaging and communications are consistent and support the brand's core message and values. By presenting a unified message across multiple platforms, businesses can create more impactful, coherent brand experiences for their customers, leading to increased brand awareness, loyalty, and ultimately, sales.

This shift was driven by the recognition that coordinated and consistent messages across different platforms could enhance the overall effectiveness of marketing campaigns. The idea was to present the consumer with a seamless experience, integrating all forms of communication to support the brand's message.

3. Adoption and Refinement (1990s):

During the 1990s, IMC gained widespread acceptance as businesses began to adopt a more customer-centric approach to marketing. Advances in database technology allowed for more targeted marketing efforts, and the rise of digital media provided new channels for communication. Marketers started to refine
