José Antonio Villarreal and Pocho Roberto Cantú, 2022-09-12 This book blends biography history and literary criticism in its analysis of Pocho 1959 José Antonio Villarreal's evocative and semi autobiographical novel about Richard Rubio a Mexican American youth raised in a pastoral community in central California where people self identified according to race ethnicity or religious affiliation Richard is the son of an Indigenous Maya mother and a Mexican fair skin father who fought in the 1910 Mexican Revolution as a cavalryman placing Richard outside the town's imposed and regulated ethnic identities In spite of his varied ancestry his American birth and his probing intelligence Richard's Indigenous appearance casts him as a social outsider Pocho was written over a nine year period of vigorous creativity and with Villarreal's power of recall and imagination at their prime In writing his inaugural novel Villarreal drew inspiration from modern narratives paintings novels films and from ancient Greek tragedy to create a Mexican American version of its classical drama ancestor This book's critical approach to Villarreal's literary work is intelligibly written so as to be of access to a broad and all inclusive readership and institutions from college and university professors public libraries and the general reader to students of US Mexican American and world literatures

The Pocho Research Society Field Guide to L.A. Sandra de la Loza, 2011 Visual and performance artist Sandra de la Loza presents a wry commentary on the Chicano history of Los Angeles in this field guide to Downtown and East Los Angeles Using the format of the photographic essay she documents the exploits of the Pocho Research Society an organization dedicated to commemorating sites in Los Angeles that are of importance to the Chicano community but that have been erased by urban development or neglect Through the unauthorized acts of commemoration the Pocho Research Society calls our attention to their absence from official narratives The field guide also offers playful tours of the murals at Estrada Courts and the Fort No Moore Secret Museum founded by the Pocho Research Society to preserve the history of the Fort Moore Pioneer Memorial a history that includes accounts of the Lizard People who lived in catacombs far beneath the monument By drawing attention to these invisible monuments and lost histories de la Loza asks her readers to consider the broader question of what constitutes a community's history
