

EMT MODULE 1 EXAM

An adult patient with the capacity to make his own decisions has cardiac-type chest pain and is refusing all treatment. What would be the EMT's most appropriate response?

- a. "I am sorry, but since 911 was called, we must transport you to the hospital. You can refuse treatment there."
- b. "Since you are oriented and rational, it is your right to refuse. Please sign this refusal of care form."
- c. "I will need to have you sign this refusal of care form and a family member sign as a witness."
- d. "Before you refuse, I need to tell you that this could be a heart attack and you could die."

[Correct Ans: - d.

Your best protection when an alert and oriented patient with the capacity to make rational decisions refuses EMS care or transport is to:

- a. completely and thoroughly document the incident
- b. have your partner sign the refusal form as a witness
- c. inform the patient's family of what happened
- d. contact the patient at a later time to see how she is doing

[Correct Ans: - a.

For negligence to be proven, what must be present?

- a. Harm to the patient, false imprisonment, duty to act
- b. Assault, breach of duty, damage, and then abandonment
- c. Duty to act, breach of duty, battery, foreseeability
- d. Duty to act, breach of duty, injury, proximate cause

[Correct Ans: - d.

Despite a patient's protest that he does not want his blood pressure taken, the EMT places a BP cuff on his arm and takes his blood pressure. The EMT states: "See? It is just as I suspected-your blood

The new European motorcycle test Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Transport Committee,2010-03-23 In April 2009 a new testing regime based on the Second EU Driving Licence Directive was introduced Deadlines for implementation had not been met and when the new test was finally introduced it was met with intense criticism and safety concerns The number of tests taken dropped dramatically in the first few months and the industry suggested that the new test regime would threaten many small businesses and jobs The Committee was concerned to not only establish whether the test had gone wrong and how problems could be rectified but also to ensure lessons are learned before the implementation of the Third EU Driving Licence Directive They concluded that they could not see why the Government failed to obtain derogation from certain speed requirements and that though many elements of the new regime were appropriate it was important to take into account the concerns expressed and consider what adjustments might be required They also believe that training and instruction for the motorcycle test needs to develop and change to reflect the new test requirements The off road module of the test also needs to be amended to allow candidates to adapt their riding to reflect prevailing weather road and other circumstances The development of better awareness of motorcyclists among other road users is also crucial and should not be neglected Though the Government exceeded what was necessary to comply with the EU directive the Committee believes they were right to do so It is the development of Multi Purpose Test Sites for which justification was weak and implementation inept which represents the least effective element
