Britannica Book of the Year ,2015 The Gale Yan Mo,2024-08-06 This contemplative semiautobiographical picture book by Nobel Laureate Mo Yan with illustrations by Hans Christian Anderson Award nominee Zhu Chengliang is perfect for readers of A Different Pond and Watercress One morning so early that fog still sleeps on the surface of the river a young boy accompanies his yeye seven miles north to the grassy field behind their home to cut satintail to feed the livestock But when a massive gale scatters the hay and a whole day s work important lessons will need to be learned about endurance impermanence and how to let go and weather the storm in a world that can often feel overwhelming and uncontrollable In sparse lyrical prose interpreted by critically acclaimed author illustrator Ying Hwa Hu

The Gale is the first ever picture book by the Nobel Prize winning author of celebrated classics like Red Sorghum and Life and Death Are Wearing Me Out. In 2012 the Swedish Academy announced that Mo Yan had received the Nobel Prize in Literature for his work that with hallucinatory realism merges folk tales, history and the contemporary. The announcement marked the first time a resident of mainland China had ever received the award. This is the first English language study of the Chinese writer's work and influence featuring essays from scholars in a range of disciplines from both China and the United States. Its introduction, twelve articles and epilogue aim to deepen and widen critical discussions of both a specific literary author and the globalization of Chinese literature more generally. The book takes the root seeking movement with which Mo Yan's works are associated as a metaphor for its organizational structure. The four articles of Part I, Leaves, focus on Mo Yan's works as world literature, exploring the long shadow his works have cast globally. Howard Goldblatt, Mo Yan's English translator, explores the difficulties and rewards of interpreting his work, while subsequent articles cover issues such as censorship and the performativity associated with being a global author. Part II, Trunk, explores the nativist core of Mo Yan's works. Through careful comparative treatment of related historical events, the five articles in this section show how specific literary works intermingle with China's national and international politics, its mid-twentieth century visual culture and its rich religious and literary conventions, including humor. The three articles in Part III, Roots, delve into the theoretical and practical extensions of Mo Yan's works, uncovering the vibrant critical and cultural systems that ground Eastern and Western literatures and cultures. Mo Yan in Context concludes with an epilogue by sociologist Fenggang Yang, offering a personal and globally aware reflection on the recognition Mo Yan's works have received at this historical juncture. Science Citation Index, 1995. Vols for 1964 have guides and journal lists.
