Environmental Ethics Paul Pojman, Katie McShane, 2016-01-01 Consequentialism and Environmental Ethics Avram Hiller, Ramona Ilea, Leonard Kahn, 2013-12-04 This volume works to connect issues in environmental ethics with the best work in contemporary normative theory Environmental issues challenge contemporary ethical theorists to account for topics that traditional ethical theories do not address to any significant extent This book articulates and evaluates consequentialist responses to that challenge Contributors provide a thorough and well rounded analysis of the benefits and limitations of the consequentialist perspective in addressing environmental issues In particular the contributors use consequentialist theory to address central questions in environmental ethics such as questions about what kinds of things have value about decision making in light of the long term intergenerational nature of environmental issues and about the role that a state s being natural should play in ethical deliberation Global Environmental Policy Charles H. Eccleston, Frederic

March, 2010-11-15 Environmental policy is often practiced reactively with each crisis addressed as an isolated event Focusing on development of proactive policies Global Environment Policy Concepts Principles and Practice provides the essential scientific and socioeconomic framework for formulating pragmatic and comprehensive environmental policies It discusse

African Environmental Ethics Munamoto Chemhuru, 2019-05-30 This book focuses on under explored and often neglected issues in contemporary African environmental philosophy and ethics Critical issues such as the moral status of nature African conceptions of animal moral status and rights African conceptions of environmental justice African relational Environmentalism ubuntu African theocentric and teleological environmentalism are addressed in this book It is unique in so far as it goes beyond the generalized focus on African metaphysics and African ethics by exploring how these views might be understood differently in order to conceptualize African environmental ethics Against the background where environmental problems such as pollution climate change extinction of flora and fauna and global warming are plain to see it becomes useful to examine how African conceptions of environmental ethics could be understood in order to confront some of these problems facing the whole world This book will be of value to undergraduate students graduate students and academics working in the area of African Philosophy African Environmental Ethics and Global Ethics in general Elgar Concise Encyclopedia of Animal Law Joan E. Schaffner, 2025-07-15 With contributions from over 135 international experts this Encyclopedia provides an expansive overview of the emerging field of animal law Focusing on the legal regulation of human interactions with non human animals the volume serves as an insightful guide to how the law can promote the wellbeing of animals as well as the environment

Rights and Urban Controversies in Hong Kong Betty Yung, Francis K. T. Mok, Baldwin Wong, 2023-05-20 This book examines the ethics in relation to city and urbanism by evaluating the strengths and limitations of rights as a conceptual tool from the comparative East West perspective in resolving urban controversies involving conflicts of rights between different classes different groups within the present generation present vs future generations human vs animals human vs plants and nature thereby facilitating urban policy making and good urban governance This book adopts an interdisciplinary approach integrating political theory ethics urban studies public policy making applications of ethics and political philosophy to social sciences to examine controversial urban issues in the Hong Kong context It challenges the general conception that philosophy and ethics are detached from everyday life with the philosophers engaging mainly in abstract intellectual pursuit and some of them even disdaining pedestrian applications of abstract thinking This book makes applications of ethics and political philosophy to real life urban contexts in Hong Kong thereby trying to highlight the normative in order to throw new light to the general approach and strategy to deal with practical urban issues facilitating out of the box thinking in the field of housing and urban studies stimulating scholars researchers and students in the fields urban planners urban managers and other professionals as well as urban policy makers

Environmental Ethics Marion Hourdequin, 2024-01-25 What is environmental virtue Is developing good habits enough What does climate justice require Is ecological restoration just another form of the human domination of nature Exploring these questions and more this book provides an up to date and balanced introduction to environmental ethics It first examines ethical theory then ties theory to practice showing how values guide environmental policies but also how policies and institutions shape environmental values Updated and expanded to engage with the latest scholarship scientific findings and societal challenges this 2nd edition features New sections on food ethics multispecies justice intergenerational ethics and the Anthropocene Contemporary case studies focusing on the rights of nature the use of biotechnology in ecological restoration and just climate transitions Expanded coverage of diverse philosophical traditions including Confucian Daoist and Indigenous ethical perspectives Updated discussion questions further reading sections and online resources Exploring the possibilities and limitations inherent in both classical ethical models and modern theoretical approaches to the environment this is a key resource for teaching students to think ethically about the world we live in Ecofeminism and Environmental Ethics David Kronlid,2003 Encyclopedia of Philosophy Donald M. well being of the earth community This collaborative volume the third in the series on religions of the world and the environment announces that an ecological reformation an eco justice reorientation of Christian theology and ethics is prominent on the ecumenical agenda The authors explore problematic themes that contribute to ecological neglect or abuse and offer constructive insight into and responsive imperatives for ecologically just and socially responsible living

Discourse, Resistance and Identity Formation Jerome Satterthwaite, Wendy Martin, Lorna Roberts, 2006 This fifth volume in the Discourse Power Resistance series considers how teachers and learners are under relentless pressure to conform their professional identity to a model imposed by policymakers The book deals with the fundamental question facing teachers and learners worldwide who are we what are we supposed to be doing why Policymakers offer stultifying answers to these questions based on a narrow instrumental view of education that is viewed by teachers and learners with growing anger and dismay What is to be done The official view and the discourse through which that view is articulated is shown in this book to be weighty and vacuous at the same time a massively ponderous discursive absurdity Consequently this book goes on to offer wide ranging and serious strategies of resistance The book encourages faculty and students in universities and partner institutions involved in teaching training and or carrying out research in all areas of education It will appeal to staff and students involved in training for compulsory and post compulsory vocational education and lifelong learning and to lecturers in all areas of Higher Education with an interest in issues of policy and identity formation The contributors are David Selby Cheryl Hunt Christina Schwabenland Eileen Honan Mhairi Mackie James Avis Anne Marie Bathmaker Yota Dimitriadi and Michael Watts
