The Nuyorican poet he says must create a new language A new day needs a new language or else the day becomes a repetition of yesterday While many of the poems focus on the Puerto Rican experience in New York others touch on universal experiences such as the death of friends and the ephemeral nature of life So what if you re dead I m here you re gone and I m left alone to watch how time betrays and we die slow so very slow And he turns his sharp gaze on events around the world including the fights between England and Argentina for the Falkland Islands Israel and Palestine for the Holy Land With an introduction by Ernesto Qui onez author of the acclaimed novel Bodega Dreams this collection takes the reader through an intimate autobiographical journey of one of the country s leading Nuyorican writers and intellectuals
