The Picture of Dorian Gray Oscar Wilde, 2005 The Picture of Dorian Gray, 2005 Handsome and dissolute Dorian Gray wants to stay young and attractive so he makes a deal with the devil Authors in Context: Oscar Wilde John Sloan, 2003-04-10 Wit dandy literary anarchist self publicist and homosexual martyr Wilde achieved fame and notoriety at a time when mass culture and communication promoted the new in every area of British life This book examines the rich interplay between Wilde s society and his writings and shows the remarkable recontextualizing of Wilde and his work in film stage and the media in the century following his death Authors in Context examines the work of major writers in relation to their own time and to the present day Combining history with lively literary discussion each volume provides comprehensive insight into texts in their context Wit dandy literary anarchist self publicist and homosexual martyr Wilde achieved fame and notoriety at a time when mass culture and communication promoted the new in every area of British life New Women New Hedonism New Journalism New Imperialism His plays tales and critical writings questioned traditional attitudes to religion sexuality women and the home crime and punishment and the freedom of the individual This book examines the rich interplay between Wilde s society and his writings and shows the remarkable recontextualizing of Wilde and his work on stage in film and the media in the century that has followed his death The Routledge Handbook of Intralingual

Translation Linda Pillière, Özlem Berk Albachten, 2024-02-27 The Routledge Handbook of Intralingual Translation provides the first comprehensive overview of intralingual translation or the rewording or rewriting of a text This Handbook aims to examine intralingual translation from every possible angle The introduction gives an overview of the theoretical political and ideological issues involved and is followed by the first section which investigates intralingual translation from a diachronic perspective covering the modernization of classical texts Subsequent sections consider different dialects and registers and intralingual translation from one language mode to another explore concepts such as self translating transediting and the role of copyeditors and investigate the increasing interest in the role of intralingual translation and second language learning Final sections examine recent developments in intralingual translation such as the subtitling of speech for the hard of hearing simultaneous Easy Language interpreting and respoken in parliamentary debates By providing an in depth study on intralingual translation the Handbook sheds light on other important areas of translation that are often bypassed including publishing practices authorship and ideological constraints Authored by a range of established and new voices in the field this is the essential guide to intralingual translation for advanced students and researchers of translation studies

Subjugated Knowledges Laurel Brake, 1994 Subjugated Knowledges is an absorbing account of the cultural formations of Victorian journalism It will be of interest to all students of Victorian literature and history and of media cultural and gender studies The Picture of Dorian Gray Oscar Wilde, 2025 The importance of being a reader: A revision of Oscar Wilde's works Christina Pascual Aransáez, 2014-11 This book explores Wilde s works from the hypothesis that they call upon the active participation of the reader in the production of meaning It has a twofold objective first it shows that Wilde s emphasis on the creative role of the audience in his critical writings makes him conceive the reader as a co creator in the construction of meaning Second it analyses the strategies which Wilde employs to impel the reader to collaborate in the creation of meaning of his literary works and casts light upon the social criticism derived from these The examination of Wilde s writings reveals how he gradually combined more sophisticated techniques that encouraged the reader s dynamic role with the progressive exploitation of self advertising strategies for professional purposes These allowed the commercial Oscar to make his works successful among the Victorian public without betraying the literary Wilde s aesthetic principles The present study re evaluates Wilde as a critic and as a writer It demonstrates that while Wilde the myth was ahead of his time in many ways Wilde the ARTIST anticipated in his aesthetic theory various themes which occupy contemporary literary theoreticians Thus it may contribute to give him the status he rightly deserves in the history of literature

The Cumulative Book Index ,1907
A world list of books in the English language The Monthly Cumulative Book Index ,1907 Intersections of Gender, Class, and Race in the Long Nineteenth Century and Beyond Barbara Leonardi,2018-12-29 This book explores the intersections of gender with class and race in the construction of national and imperial ideologies and their fluid transformation from the Romantic to the Victorian period and beyond exposing how these cultural constructions are deeply entangled with the family metaphor For example by examining the re signification of the angel in the house and the deviant woman in the context of unstable or contingent masculinities and across discourses of class and nation the volume contributes to a more nuanced understanding of British cultural constructions in the long nineteenth century The central idea is to unearth the historical roots of the family metaphor in the construction of national and imperial ideologies and to uncover the interests served by its specific discursive formation The book explores both male and female stereotypes enabling a more perceptive comparison enriched with a nuanced reflection on the construction and social function of class
