Multinational Enterprises and the Law Peter Muchlinski, 2021 Multinational Enterprises and the Law is the only comprehensive contemporary and interdisciplinary account of the techniques used to regulate multinational enterprises MNEs at the national regional and multilateral levels In addition it considers the effects of corporate self regulation and the impact of civil society and community groups upon the development of the legal order in this area The book has been thoroughly revised and updated for this third edition making it a definitive reference work for students researchers and practitioners of international economic law business corporate and commercial law development studies and international politics Split into four parts the book first deals with the conceptual basis for MNE regulation It explains the growth of MNEs their business and legal forms and the relationship between them and the effects of a globalized economy and society now increasingly challenged by recently revived nationalist economic policies upon the evolution of regulatory agendas in the field In addition the limits of national and regional jurisdiction over MNE activities are considered a question that arises throughout the specialized areas of regulation covered in the remainder of the book Part II covers the main areas of economic regulation including controls over and the liberalization of entry and establishment tax company and competition law and the impact of intellectual property rights on technology diffusion and transfer A specialized chapter on the regulation of multinational banks in the wake of the global financial crisis is new to this edition Part III introduces the social dimension of MNE regulation covering labour rights human rights and environmental issues Finally Part IV deals with the contribution of international investment law to MNE regulation and to the control of investment risks covering the main provisions found in international investment agreements their interpretation by international tribunals the process of investor state arbitration and how concerns over these developments are leading to reform proposals

State-Owned Entities and Human Rights Mihaela Maria Barnes, 2021-12-02 The monograph focuses on the human rights challenges that are associated with the involvement of States in economic activities and on the role that international law has to play in addressing and understanding some of those challenges State owned entities are looked at through the lens of several topics of international law that have been found to hold particular relevance in this context such as the concept of legal personality in international law the process of normativity in international law State immunity and State responsibility The monograph shows how SOEs have had a significant role in shaping the evolution of international law and how in turn international law is currently shaping the evolution of State owned entities By focusing on State owned or State controlled business entities rather than private corporations the monograph aims to offer an alternative perspective on the challenges associated with corporations and human rights

The Handbook of Globalisation, Third Edition Jonathan

Michie,2019 The past 30 years are often depicted as an era of globalisation and even more so with the recent rise of global giants such as Google and Amazon This updated and revised edition of The Handbook of Globalisation offers novel insights into the rapid changes our world is facing and how best we can handle them      Global Business in Local Culture Philipp Aerni,2018-12-08 This book examines the impact of multinational enterprises MNEs on local economies and presents selected case studies of MNEs operating in low income countries By balancing external social and environmental costs against its corresponding benefits the book demonstrates that MNEs can have a positive net impact on local development if they build up social capital by embedding themselves in local economies and engaging responsibly with local stakeholders By doing so MNEs contribute to inclusive growth a central pillar of the UN Sustainable Development Goals In this context the book challenges popular narratives in civil society and academia that frame foreign direct investment FDI merely as a threat to human rights and sustainable development Moreover it offers practical guidance for globally operating businesses seeking to establish progressive Corporate Social Responsibility CSR strategies of their own      Industrialisation and Workforce Development in Africa Nigisty Gebrechristos,2025-04-07 This book explores the dynamics and challenges of building an industrial workforce and industrialisation in Africa It highlights the potential for economic growth within the manufacturing sector and how industrialisation can provide employment build industrial workforce and facilitate labour market opportunities Government policies and the role of local and regional governments are analysed to examine why certain industrial parks perform better than others With particular details drawn from Ethiopia s apparel and textile industry the historical relationship between capitalist development and the labour force is explored to show tensions between maximising profits and ensuring labour rights and better wages Building an industrial workforce necessitates effective government policies firm strategies industrial ecosystems and productive dialogue and collective learning between government and firms      EU Human Rights, International Investment Law and Participation Vivian Kube,2019-08-02 This book demonstrates how human rights obligations of the EU foreign constitution can be operationalized in the realm of international economic regulation The content is divided into three major parts The first outlines the legal foundations needed for the EU to become a shaper of international investment law which include the general principles and objectives of EU external policies the Charter of Fundamental Rights international human rights and the international investment competences of the EU The second part demonstrates the current international investment regime s incompatibility with human rights interests while the third analyzes two mechanisms stemming from trade Law ex ante human rights impact assessments and civil society monitoring bodies and explores whether they could mitigate the current inequalities in the protection of rights The potential of these mechanisms the book argues lies in their capacity to ensure a comprehensive assessment of all interests at stake and to empower traditionally marginalized rights holders to make shape and contest the international investment regime      Piercing the Corporate Veil Doctrine in International Investment Agreements Anastasiia

Dulska, 2018-06-01 Diploma Thesis from the year 2017 in the subject Law Miscellaneous grade 1 7 Humboldt University of Berlin International Dispute Resolution Master of Laws LL M Programme course International Investment Arbitration language English abstract The piercing the corporate veil in ISDS plays a twofold role From the investors perspective it is instrumental if a tribunal can ignore the difference between the legal personality of the company in which they invested in and the shares that they hold Per contra States also invoke this doctrine by trying to convince a tribunal to look at the true personalities involved and not to allow an investor to hide behind the veil of the different legal personalities To address these competing interests the author of this Master Thesis in Chapter II intends to analyse the characteristic pattern and standing of shareholders in bringing indirect claims aimed to persuade the tribunal to ignore the difference between the legal personality of a company and its shareholders and to look at the true interests at stake instead In Chapter III the applicability of the piercing the corporate veil doctrine will be approached from the States perspective and when they invoke the denial of benefits clauses On the basis of the foregoing this Master Thesis purports to address the intersection between the jurisdiction of the arbitral tribunal in ISDS and the concepts of investor and investment underlying the application of the piercing the corporate veil doctrine By doing so the author of this Master Thesis explores the provisions of IIAs commented on by authoritative treatises contemporary views embodied in articles and jurisprudence of international investment treaty tribunals In order to arrive at its findings and conclusions this Master Thesis utilizes the method of description method of conceptual analysis comparative method and method of evaluation

World Investment Report 2017 United Nations Publications, 2017-08-11 This report presents the latest trends in foreign direct investment FDI and contains an in depth analysis of policy developments investment prospects and key emerging issues related to investment The report finds that in 2016 global flows of FDI fell by about 2 per cent to 1 75 trillion Investment in developing countries declined even more by 14 per cent and flows to LDCs and structurally weak economies remain volatile and low Although UNCTAD predicts a modest recovery of FDI flows in 2017 2018 they are expected to remain well below their 2007 peak Furthermore this report builds on the track record and presents policy advice on how to deal with close to 3 000 old generation investment treaties A key challenge for policymakers in today s global economy is digital development The theme chapter of the Report shows that the digital economy is having a major impact on global patterns of investment It provides important insights on the implications of the digital economy for investment policies designed for the analogue era and suggests how investment policy can support digital development
