Personality Types Theory:

The Type Theory of Law Marko Novak,2016-05-10 This volume presents a Type Theory of Law TTL claiming that this is a unique theory of law that stems from the philosophical understanding of Jung s psychological types applied to the phenomenon of law Furthermore the TTL claims to be a universal general and descriptive account of law To prove that the book first presents the fundamentals of Jungian psychological types as they had been invented by Jung and consequently developed further by his followers The next part of the book describes how the typological structure of an individual determines their understanding of law It then addresses the way in which inclusive legal theory can be understood based on this typology Finally the book describes the TTL in general and descriptive terms and puts it into context All in all the book shows how the integral or inclusive approach to understanding the nature of law is not only in tune with our time but also relevant for presenting a more persuasive picture of law than the older exclusivist or dualist approaches of strict natural law and rigid legal positivism did
