

DEDICATION

We humbly dedicate this case study to the enhancement of Nursing Students in making Case Studies.

The student's aim to develop a study that is worthy of credit as a certificate reference in the continuing implementation of Nursing Practice in Maternal and Child Health Nursing – Hence, the contents of this study should be able to provide data for future researchers and studies in the area covered.

We finally dedicate this book to our families whose untiring support and assistance have made possible the fruition of our efforts. To our friends and classmates for their cooperation while conducting the study.

And most of all to our great creator our Almighty God the author of knowledge and wisdom who made this possible.

BSN 2nd year Group 1

Trials and Triumphs- A Teacher's Life Journey Dr Dhastgir Sultan Sherif,2024-01-20 The quote sums up the role of teachers in student s life The influence of a teacher extends beyond the four walls of a class room and plays a significant role in molding and shaping the life of a student Rather the teacher student bond is the foundation stone of building the life of a student I am lucky to be a teacher who had a great influence on the lives of many medical students The bond and rapport between the teacher and the student is unique and beyond explanation I have the privilege of being a teacher for over four decades having taught couple of thousand students who now adorn the garden of Medicine I will just narrate one incident that describes the beauty and greatness of this relationship When I was teaching in Antigua I had developed such a relationship that cemented our souls together At the time of my leaving the medical school at the Airport one of my student just tried to become one with me standing on my feet embracing me and not allowing me to travel It took lot of persuasion to take leave of the student leaving a deep rooted bonding that defies explanation This short write up pictures the journey of my life traveling through many stations of learning carrying memories which words cannot capture or portray for these experiences are embedded deep into the chambers of heart probably rightly called as the seat of love and emotions

The Complete Guide to Graduate School Admission Patricia Keith-Spiegel,Michael W. Wiederman,2000-03-01 Should I go to graduate school How do I choose where to apply Are my grades and accomplishments good enough to get in Who should I ask to write recommendation letters for me and how should I approach these people How do I write my personal statement When will I hear my fate and how should I make my final decision These are just a few of the many questions to which this well researched thorough and extremely user friendly book offers answers Students who are contemplating graduate training in psychology counseling and related fields are often apprehensive and confused about applying to graduate school but this book takes the guesswork and anxiety out of the process The tone and features such as the Q A format timeline for application related tasks and activities and special advice for special populations that made the first edition so successful eliciting hundreds of thank you notes and e mail messages to the author are just as evident in this new edition The book has been thoroughly updated to include coverage of new topics such as use of the internet and e mail as well as changing trends in the professions The most obvious difference is that the book is now significantly shorter as a result of meticulous rewriting making it even easier to use There have been attempts since the publication of the first edition to copy the format of this book but none of the others have successfully duplicated the depth of research based advice and the supportive style that make this book the guide of choice for thousands of graduate school bound students and their advisors
