Preparing for the AP English Language and Composition Exam

Make a study plan

Creating a study plan can help guide you in the right direction to ensure success on the AP English Language and Composition exam.

Determine how much time you have before the exam and how much time you can dedicate to studying for the exam. Answering these questions will help you set a pace for your review.

Take a diagnostic test

The diagnostic test will help you identify your weak spots in the course. Based on the result of the test, use your study time to address the areas where you need improvement.

Take practice tests

Completing practice tests will help you build confidence, understand and answering multiple-choice questions, and practice in writing timed

Pacing is important! Work quickly and carefully throughout the test. Answer the easy questions as you can as quickly as you can, and then go back and try to fill in the others.
