Community Languages Michael G. Clyne, 1991 Without even considering the 150 Aboriginal languages still spoken Australia has an unparalleled mix of languages other than English in common usage languages often described by the term community Drawing on census data and other statistics this book addresses the current situation of community languages in Australia analysing which are spoken by whom and whereabouts It focuses on three main issues how languages other than English are maintained in an English speaking environment how the structure of the languages themselves changes over time and how the government has responded to such ethnolinguistic diversity At a time of unprecedented awareness of these languages within society and a realisation of the importance of multilingualism in business this book makes a significant contribution to understanding the role of community languages in shaping the future of Australian society Iranian and Minority Languages at Home and in Diaspora Anousha Sedighi,2023-02-20 While the typology syntax and morphology of Iranian languages have been widely explored the sociolinguistic aspects remain largely understudied The present companion addresses this essential yet overlooked area of research in two ways i The book explores multilingualism within Iran and its neighbouring countries ii It also investigates Iranian heritage languages within the diasporic context of the West The scope of languages covered is vast In addition to discussing Iranian minority languages such as Tati and Balochi the book explores non Iranian minority languages such as Azeri Tukmen Armenian and Mandaic Furthermore the companion investigates Iranian heritage languages such as Wakhi Pashto and Persian within their diasporic and global contexts In the current era of migration and globalization minority and heritage speakers are increasingly valuable resources By focusing on the speakers the companion provides new insights into a multitude of sociolinguistic issues including language attitude and identity language use and literacy practices language policy language shift and loss The companion is an essential reference for those interested in Iranian languages minority languages heritage languages sociolinguistics bilingualism language policy and planning diaspora and migration studies as well as those researching in related fields Second Language Instruction/acquisition Abstracts ,1994 Dynamics of Language Maintenance Among Linguistic Minorities Jennifer Marie Bayer,1986 International Migration in Asia Trends and Policies OECD,2002-02-01 This publication presents the current migration policy debates in Asia which are largely influenced by recent macroeconomic and labour market developments in the region Linguistics and Language Behavior Abstracts ,2009 International Journal of the Sociology of Language ,1982 Language Maintenance Versus Assimilation Ursula M.
