begin the process of improving the company's productivity and profitability. The objective is to help organizations understand why and how to institute changes needed to provide better and more sustainable financial benefits to bring training and educational development to the leaders as well as employees. In order to reach these goals and objectives to assist the organization bring about change for the leaders as well as employees. As a leader they must fully understand and use as many change models as required to do the best job possible. After extensive research and study the author chose to use the change models of Kotter's Eight Step Change Model and The 21st Century Town Meeting. How the author used these models is described in detail in the book Behind the Lectern Kadeshah Swearing, 2025-12-20. This book explores groupwork in tertiary education charting its evolution purpose psychological foundations and practical application and enriches global perspectives with insights from 47 Caribbean lecturers. It begins with definitions historical roots of group learning and then examines major pedagogical approaches such as cooperative and collaborative learning. Subsequent chapters explore the psychology of group dynamics and the stages of group development. Attention is given to the effective group formation the benefits and drawbacks of group work and the challenges of fair and meaningful assessment. This book is grounded in mixed methods research with both quantitative findings and rich qualitative narratives from Caribbean professors. Later chapters explore the transition from academic collaboration to professional readiness and conclude with a forward looking discussion on the role of artificial intelligence in enhancing group work. This book offers a timely comprehensive resource for educators researchers and policymakers invested in improving collaborative learning in higher education.
