Exploring Identity Development and Self Leilya A. Pitre, Mike P. Cook, 2021-02-15 This book offers readers opportunities to explore the most common universal themes taught in secondary English Language Arts classrooms using contemporary young adult literature. Authors discuss adolescence and adolescent readers young adult literature and its possibilities in the classroom and ways to teach thematic analysis. The book provides context traditional approaches to teaching and examples of thematic explorations of each of the chosen themes. Chapters include developed teaching instructional units to study three universal themes: a journey of self discovery, good vs bad, right vs wrong, and making difficult choices and developing positive self perception. Each instructional unit includes rationale, essential questions, and objectives, calendar plans for up to six weeks, examples of introductory reading and discussing, and enrichment activities and assessments. The activities target academic skills for ELA curricula and create safe spaces for exploring topics of identity, struggles, and personal growth complicated by social issues, all of which adolescents face today. Each instructional chapter suggests a wide range of additional texts and resources for theme explorations. The Persian Empire Ernst Herzfeld, 1968

The Rise and Organisation of the Achaemenid Empire W.J. Vogelsang, 2023-08-14 The present book discusses the eastern part of the Persian Achaemenid Empire which was founded around the middle of the sixth century B.C. by Cyrus the Great. Within twenty years the empire stretched from the Aegean coast in the west to the Kabul valley in the east. How did the Persians manage to conquer such a vast area within such a short time? And how did they manage to preserve their empire for two hundred years before being defeated by the military genius of Alexander of Macedon? The answer to the above questions is sought in the chaotic years that preceded the rise of the Achaemenids. On the basis of geographical and general historical information, the Persian Achaemenid texts and reliefs, classical sources, and archaeological material, this study draws attention to the nomads from the Central Asian steppes and deserts who throughout history have played a major role in the developments that took place on the Iranian Plateau and beyond. The New Schaff-Herzog Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge Johann Jakob Herzog, Albert Hauck, Samuel Macauley Jackson, Charles Colebrook Sherman, George William Gilmore, 1910 Corpus Inscriptionum Iranicarum, 2000 The Concept of Monument in Achaemenid Empire Mehr Azar Soheil, 2018-12-07 The aim of this book is to explore the significance of the concept of monument in the context of the Achaemenid Empire 550-330 BC with particular reference to the Royal Ensemble of Persepolis founded by Darius I and built together with his son Xerxes. While Persepolis was built as an intentional monument, it had already become an historic monument during the Achaemenid period. It maintained its symbolic significance in the following centuries even after its destruction by Alexander of Macedonia in 330 BC. The purpose of building Persepolis was to establish a symbol and a common reference for the peoples of the Empire with the Achaemenid Dynasty transmitting significant messages and values such as peace, stability, grandeur, and praise for the dynastic figure of the king as the protector of values and fighting.

falsehood While previous research on Achaemenid heritage has mainly been on archaeological and art historical aspects of Persepolis the present work focuses on the architecture and design of Persepolis It is supported by studies in the fields of archaeology history and art history as well as by direct survey of the site The morphological analysis of Persepolis including the study of the proportions of the elevations and the verification of a planning grid for the layout of the entire ensemble demonstrate the univocal will by Darius to plan Persepolis following a precise initial scheme The study shows how the inscriptions bas reliefs and the innovative architectural language together express the symbolism values and political messages of the Achaemenid Dynasty exhibiting influence from different lands in a new architectural language and in the plan of the entire site
