Maiorino acknowledges that many titles are superficial and indexical there exists a separate and more complex class of titles that do much more than simply decorate a book's spine To prove this argument Maiorino analyzes a wide range of examples from the modern era through high modernism to postmodernism with writings spanning the globe from Spain and France to Germany and America By examining works such as Essais The Waste Land Ulysses and Don Quixote First Pages proves the power of the title to connect the reader to the thematic cultural and literary context of the writing as a whole Much like a facade to a building the title page serves as the frontispiece of literature a sign that offers perspective and demands interpretation
