The Ground Beneath the Cross Kevin F. Burke, 2000-02-04 This book is the first comprehensive analysis of the thought of Ignacio Ellacuría the Jesuit philosopher theologian martyred for his work on behalf of Latin America's oppressed peoples While serving as president of the Jesuit-run University of Central America in the midst of El Salvador's brutal civil war Ellacuría was also a prolific writer His advocacy on behalf of the country's persecuted majority provoked the enmity of the Salvadoran political establishment On November 16 1989 members of the Salvadoran military entered the university's campus and murdered Ellacuría along with five other Jesuit priests and two women Kevin F. Burke SJ shows why Ellacuría is significant not only as a martyr but also as a theologian Ellacuría effectively integrated philosophy history anthropology and sociopolitical analysis into his theological reflections on salvation spirituality and the church to create an original contribution to liberation theology Ellacuría's writings directly address one of the most vexing issues in theology today can theologians account for the demands arising from both the particularity of their various social historical situations and also the universal claims of Christian revelation Burke explains how Ellacuría bases theology in a philosophy of historical reality the ground beneath the cross and interprets the suffering of the crucified peoples in the light of Jesus' crucifixion Ellacuría thus inserts the theological realities of salvation and transcendence squarely within the course of human events and he connects these to the Christian mandate to take the crucified peoples down from their crosses Placing Ellacuría's thought in the context of historical trends within the Roman Catholic Church particularly Vatican II and the rise of liberation theology in Latin America Burke argues that Ellacuría makes a distinctive contribution to contemporary Catholic theology

Love that Produces Hope Kevin F. Burke, Robert Anthony Lassalle-Klein, 2006 Father Ignacio Ellacuría SJ president of the University of Central America leading Latin American philosopher and liberation theologian was assassinated with five Jesuit companions and two women on November 16 1989 Love That Produces Hope brings together leading authorities on key aspects of Ellacuría's thought His biography and writings embody late twentieth century transformations and tensions that reshaped the life of the Catholic Church among the crucified peoples of Central America

Fear of Jung Theo A. Cope, 2018-04-17 The current neuroscientific research in the field of emotion studies highlights a paradigm of scientific research that must be categorized as functional science As functional science the neuroscientific theory of the neuron doctrine combined with a Jungian theory of the complex doctrine hold significant potential for a natural human science and a psychological study of affectivity Though researchers utilize psychological constructs similar to those proposed by Carl Jung there appears to be a fear of Jung that is a professional fear of invoking Jung s name or his psychological research One familiar with Jung s works notice similar terminology ideas and even conclusions The marginalization and neglect of Jung s psychological insights from a serious empirical scientific approach to psychology is due to many factors Jung did not reduce psychological experience to the body or brain a reductive science does not consider seriously the reality of the psyche This work is an initial contribution to a psychological and neurological study of personal emotional experience Suárez on Aristotelian Causality ,2015-03-31 Su rez on Aristotelian Causality offers the first comprehensive account of Francisco Su rez s position with respect to the four Aristotelian causes in his Metaphysical Disputations Su rez deals with these causes in the greater part of Metaphysical Disputations 12 27 approximately a third of his famous work on metaphysics Nevertheless no previous attempt at analysis of causality as a part of his overall metaphysical position has been offered The material formal efficient and final cause as understood by Su rez each receives a chapter in this volume just as his general account of causality is considered This should be relevant to anyone interested in the role and pertinence of Aristotelian causality for Su rez s metaphysics Contributors in order of appearance are Jakob Leth Fink Erik kerlund Kara Richardson Stephan Schmid and Sydney Penner
