Library Lion Michelle Knudsen, Kevin Hawkes, 2009-06-25 A lion starts visiting the local library but runs into trouble as he tries to both obey the rules and help his librarian friend

Library Lion Michelle Knudsen, 2006 A lion starts visiting the local library but runs into trouble as he tries to both obey the rules and help his librarian friend Miss Merriweather the head librarian is very particular about rules in the library No running allowed And you must be quiet But when a lion comes to the library one day no one is sure what to do There aren t any rules about lions in the library And as it turns out this lion seems very well suited to library visiting His big feet are quiet on the library floor He makes a comfy backrest for the children at story hour And he never roars in the library at least not anymore But when something terrible happens the lion quickly comes to the rescue in the only way he knows how Michelle Knudsen s disarming story illustrated by the matchless Kevin Hawkes in an expressive timeless style will win over even the most ardent of rule keepers

School Library Storytime Brenda S. Copeland, Patricia A. Messner, 2013-04-23 This book is an invaluable resource for school library aides who conduct storytime activities providing everything from instruction on how to read to children to a week by week read aloud curriculum for the entire school year School Library Storytime Just the Basics is the perfect resource for library aides paraprofessionals or other library staff who conduct storytime in a school library media center It provides all of the essential information materials and step by step guidance needed to facilitate these all important events for children in kindergarten through second grade allowing library staff without previous training or experience to get started with confidence The fifth title in the highly regarded Just the Basics series this book starts with an introduction followed by explanations of how to read aloud and tips for managing and working with children in the primary grades The authors suggest specific picture books that tie into school year based themes and supply materials that can be used as listed or easily modified to meet the individual library s needs Event specific lessons are supplied for many weeks within the school year making this title one that educators will rely on for storytime ideas from September through May Library Lion Michelle Knudsen,2006 A lion starts visiting the local library but runs into trouble as he tries to both obey the rules and help his librarian friend Miss Merriweather the head librarian is very particular about rules in the library No running allowed And you must be quiet But when a lion comes to the library one day no one is sure what to do There aren t any rules about lions in the library And as it turns out this lion seems very well suited to library visiting His big feet are quiet on the library floor He makes a comfy backrest for the children at story hour And he never roars in the library at least not anymore But when something terrible happens the lion quickly comes to the rescue in the only way he knows how Michelle Knudsen s disarming story illustrated by the matchless Kevin Hawkes in an expressive timeless style will win over even the most ardent of rule keepers The New York Times Index ,1921 Nicholas Anne Carroll Moore,1924 A magical boy named Nicholas sails into Manhattan makes friends with all kinds of magical creatures and children and spends Christmas and afterwards with his new friends exploring New York and the world Children's Book-a-Day Almanac Anita Silvey,2012-10-30 An almanac with information about famous events and celebrations for each dayof the year and related children s book recommendations Library of Natural History Richard Lydekker,1901 Liesl Frank, Charlotte Dieterle and the European Film Fund Martin Sauter,2012-10-25 Setting out to provide a definitive history of the European Film Fund EFF the purpose of this thesis is as follows first to draw attention to the many exile and refugee organisations by examining one of them the EFF As a study of a refugee organisation founded as a result of Nazism my examination of the EFF not only fills an existing gap in film history as far as the EFF itself is concerned Refugee organisations in general have received scant attention by exile scholars By making one refugee organisation the focus of my inquiry I am also highlighting the presence of women in the topic of exile as two women Liesl Frank wife of the writer Bruno Frank and Charlotte Dieterle wife of the director William Dieterle were at the centre of the EFF My investigation of this organisation demonstrates that women played a much larger role in exile and exile communities than history and literature have thus far accorded them Additionally I show how the political situation after 1933 including apathy by the international community led to the founding of the EFF Lastly by shifting the focus away from figureheads of the migr community to below the line film artists technicians theatre artists and so on I foreground those refugees whose lives have hitherto been obscured by their more famous fellow migr s Imperial Reference Library ,1898 The Gentleman's Magazine Library George Laurence Gomme,1896 Shepp's Library of History and Art Daniel B.
