Jessica J Manson

Carry It On:

Carry it on Susan Youngblood Ashmore,2008 Carry It On is an in depth study of how the local struggle for equality in Alabama fared in the wake of new federal laws the Civil Rights Act the Economic Opportunity Act and the Voting Rights Act Susan Youngblood Ashmore provides a sharper definition to changes set in motion by the fall of legal segregation She focuses her detailed story on the Alabama Black Belt and on the local projects funded by the Office of Economic Opportunity OEO the federal agency that supported programs in a variety of cities and towns in Alabama Black Belt activists who used OEO funds understood that the structural underpinnings of poverty were key components of white supremacy says Ashmore They were motivated not only to end poverty but also to force local governments to comply with new federal legislation aimed at achieving racial equality on a number of fronts Ashmore looks closely at the interactions among local activists elected officials businesspeople landowners bureaucrats and others who were involved in or affected by OEO projects Carry It On offers a nuanced picture of the OEO an agency too broadly criticized a new look at the rise of southern Black Power and a compelling portrait of local citizens struggling for control over their own lives Ashmore provides a more complete understanding of how southerners worked to define for themselves how freedom would come during the years shaped by the civil rights movement and the war on poverty

You Don't Have to Carry It All Paula Faris,2023-03-07 Award winning journalist and mom of three Paula Faris gives insightful and practical steps for better working momming and living to millions of overwhelmed working moms In Paula Faris s most important reporting yet You Don t Have to Carry It All reveals a game plan that will not only make being a working mom work but will also reveal how and why society needs to value mothers first Weaving together groundbreaking research with inspirational wisdom she recognizes the history of working moms in America and its lasting impact today shows how motherhood has scientifically improved the minds and capabilities of women encourages moms to link arms not only with each other but also with men and proves why corporate America is better with moms at the helm After interviewing countless experts thought leaders and mothers Faris believes we can join together to create a path forward for ditching the mom guilt ending burnout and finally giving working moms the support they so desperately need Because with working moms on the job there are literally no hands more capable of creating the change we need
