

The main workspace is divided into two primary sections. On the left is a piano roll for a track, showing a sequence of notes on a grid. On the right is a mixer section with multiple channels, each featuring a fader, a solo button, and a mute button. The mixer also includes various EQ and filter controls for each channel.

The bottom section of the interface is a detailed mixer console. It features a series of vertical faders for each track, with corresponding knobs for pan and other parameters. The master section on the right includes a master fader, a master meter, and various output options. The interface is dark-themed with a grid layout.
