Accounting Instructor's Resource Kit Cunningham, Loren A Nikolai, John D Bazley, 1999-07 Accounting Information for Business Decisions offers an integrated approach to teaching managerial and financial accounting course topics for the Introductory or Principles of Accounting course This new text written by an experienced author team is designed to help students understand how to use both managerial and financial accounting information to make decisions Class tested for three years across the United States its student friendly approach has already earned it rave reviews The text provides an introduction to business in Chapter 1 and is the only introductory accounting book to have an entire chapter Chapter 2 devoted to creative and critical thinking A non technical approach makes learning accounting accessible for majors and non majors focuses students on using accounting information for decision making and conforms with AECC guidelines for teaching accounting A full chapter length appendix on the accounting cycle debits credits allows instructors to implement this portion of the course anywhere they desire

Accounting Charles T. Horngren, Walter T. Harrison, Linda Smith Bamber, 2002 The Demo Docs System of instruction replicates the classroom experience by providing more I get it moments outside of class We ve talked to tons of POA instructors and our editors have even taken the accounting course numerous times to figure out the following issue in this course that is consistent Students understand or get it right after you do a problem in class but as soon as they leave class with each passing hour their ability to do the problems again and complete their homework diminishes to the point of them either having to come to office hours to get help or they just quit and get behind in the course On top of this you can end up getting behind in the course as well in order to keep everyone on track The Demo Docs system helps to recreate the I get it moments outside of class keeping both you and the students on track
