Canada as Statebuilder? Laura Grant, Benjamin Zyla, 2021-08-18

Canada's statebuilding efforts in Afghanistan are not well documented After fourteen years of significant investments in humanitarian causes there are still questions about the impact of these projects and whether they delivered as promised or fell short

In Canada as Statebuilder Laura Grant and Benjamin Zyla analyze over one hundred and thirty Canadian led development projects in Afghanistan to illustrate that Canada has a limited capacity to effectively run humanitarian efforts in unstable insecure or inaccessible environments

Canadian or Canadian sponsored development projects were ambitious and highly productive in terms of outputs in the short term especially in the areas of security women and gender health and education

However when their outcomes and overall impact are assessed the authors argue Canada's record is less impressive

Their analysis contributes to evidence based discussions of one of Canada's most important foreign policy activities in recent years

Reflecting on Canada's engagement in Afghanistan Canada as Statebuilder asks whether Canadian peacekeeping efforts in the region were ultimately worth the
