Pharmaceutical Competitive Intelligence for the Regulatory Affairs Professional Raymond A. Huml,2012-06-15 This Brief defines competitive intelligence CI as a tool for making investment decisions within the pharmaceutical industry It provides an overview of processes that the regulatory affairs professional must take into account when evaluating data impacting product based risk evaluations These apply particularly to evaluations that focus on outputs such as regulatory approval or the commercial impact of product labeling on the sales forecast over a limited timeframe The Brief also provides an overview of intellectual property assessment that can impact a product s lifespan on the market due to patent protection itself or loss of patent protection or via regulatory exclusivity Case examples are discussed to illustrate the importance of keeping up with the ever changing regulations and how to interpret them in the context of CI In addition there is a section on virtual data rooms VDRs which currently function as the cornerstone of due diligence investigations While aimed primarily at regulatory affairs professionals in the United States this publication provides a useful adjunct for other pharmaceutical executives especially those new to product based investments and regulatory affairs professionals in other regions

The Internet Age of Competitive Intelligence John J. McGonagle,Carolyn M. Vella,1999-01-30 Two of the most prolific and challenging authorities on the topic of competitive intelligence CI reflect on and respond to the changes in the field over the last decade The authors point out that CI users have to change what they are doing show why they are doing it and provide ways of doing it Their book reviews the problems in the development of CI since the 1980s discusses the impact of the Internet and the rise in use of other secondary sources and draws from and provides access to the growing body of CI information knowledge and literature Combining a scholarly approach with hands on advice McGonagle and Vella have written the first work to guide CI professionals through the emerging literature of their field Among the important changes in the field the authors cover are the radical changes in on line database searching and ways in which the Internet has fundamentally modified how we think of accessing data Their book explores and reports the major body of work from the Society of Competitive Intelligence Professionals now that more businesses worldwide are using competitive intelligence and either writing about their experiences with it or joining in new benchmarking studies The result is newer information on what really works what doesn't work and who is doing what with it The book is thus a starting point for people new to the field of CI as well as a resource to help experienced professionals do their jobs better Competitive Intelligence As a Sustainable Long Term Competitive Advantage Lucretia Lăşcher, 2011 Diploma Thesis from the year 2010 in the subject Business economics General grade 1.7 Leipzig Graduate School of Management language English abstract Integrity without knowledge is weak and useless and knowledge without integrity is dangerous and dreadful Samuel Johnson 1709-1784 Nowadays knowledge is the economic basis of each company One needs to know the product the technology behind it but also the customer the competitor and other circumstances that influence the business The scientific term for the necessity of information gathering and its transformation into applicable knowledge is Competitive Intelligence CI This thesis focuses on three questions regarding CI which are linked in a model Firstly it gives an overview about the most important types of CI Based on three types namely Market Intelligence Competitor Intelligence and Internal Intelligence it raises the question if there are industry specific requirements and general key aspects of the activity The focus group consists of 15 multinational companies from 6 different industries which were analysed with respect to information gathering and types of CI activities Secondly the thesis considers legal aspects It asks how effective international treaties and European laws are in terms of criminal prosecution of unfair competition and protection of intellectual property rights The considerations are limited to those facts that might be taken into account for CI actions In addition it analyzes if the results from the first part of the thesis are legally allowed or if some activities are legally questionable Thirdly it looks at the strategic relevance of the legally gathered information Therefore it assesses the opportunities of CI activities for strategic implementation based on the existing strategic tool Scenario Planning and proves that the fit of CI and Scenario Planning has potential to create a sustainable Competitive Advantage CA
