Constructing Landscape :

Constructing Landscape Astrid Zimmermann,2011 This is a systematic introduction to technical and constructional open space planning with all the relevant topics covered from the most common materials and surfaces to the construction of open space elements and the use of plants The text is supported by over 1200 photographs illustrations and plans

Constructing Landscape Astrid Zimmermann,2008 Constructing Landscape is a systematic introduction to technical and constructional open space planning with all the relevant topics from the most common materials and surfaces to the construction of open space elements and the use of plants For landscape architects and architects it is an indispensable guide to correct and professional execution planning as well as to preparing solid and well thought out requests for proposal Constructing Landscape is divided into two sections Materials and Surfaces and Building Construction and Building Elements The first section provides an overview of the various building materials of landscape architecture and their specific characteristics It also explains the qualities of surfaces and the different approaches to treating them The second section begins with an introductory chapter explaining the principles of statics the connections of load bearing elements and the various approaches to anchoring building components and supporting structures The subsequent chapters use drawings and text to present the constructional principles and techniques associated with the various building elements Each chapter concludes with a collection of sample projects illustrated with photographs and technical drawings The Standard Cyclopedia of Horticulture Liberty Hyde Bailey,1916 The Rock-Art Landscapes of Rombalds Moor, West Yorkshire Vivien Deacon,2020-04-30 This landscape study of the rock art of Rombalds Moor West Yorkshire considers views of and from the sites In an attempt to understand the rock art landscapes of prehistory the study considered the environment of the moor and its archaeology along with the ethnography from the whole circumpolar region Report on a Proposed Classification of Titles and Positions in the Civil Service of the City of Rochester, N.Y. Bureau of Municipal Research (Rochester, N.Y.),1920

Spatial Transformation Milad Abassiharofteh,Jessica Baier,Angelina Göb,Insa Thimm,Andreas Eberth,Falco Knaps,Vilja Larjosto,Fabiana Zebner,2022 What can be understood by spatial transformation how does it manifest itself and what are the characteristics of transformation processes This Research Report addresses these questions and presents current research projects and approaches from an academic and practical planning perspective A central point of reference is the concept of a Great Transformation which stems from an expert report by the German Advisory Council on Global Change WBGU It outlines the profound changes in the economy and society towards sustainability that will become necessary in the future describing them as a Great Transformation Likewise social upheavals also manifest themselves in space enabling spatial changes to be understood as spatial transformations However on a detailed level it remains unclear what is to be understood by spatial transformation processes and how they manifest themselves Against the background of this need for further research this Research Report addresses concrete issues in the research and shaping of spatial transformation processes The aim is to systematise the largely unordered or disordered knowledge of spatial transformation processes and to contribute to a common understanding of the associated concepts which can form the basis for further research and for the steering of these processes The articles on the following topics show how spatial and social transformation processes are mutually dependent and what opportunities and challenges inter and transdisciplinary research designs can offer in this context Perspectives on transformation processes Social and settlement structures in change Regional development and innovation Transformation processes in the so called Global South New challenges for planning processes and stakeholders Research on transformation The contributions to theoretical methodological and practical approaches are intended to stimulate a critical discussion on spatial transformation that is open to new interdisciplinary perspectives
