Contributions by Jay D Edwards Keagan LeJeune Benjamin Morris Jeffrey Schwartz Peter G Stillman Adelaide H Villmoare and W D Wilkerson Rebuilding in Louisiana and Mississippi after Hurricanes Katrina and Rita presented some very thorny issues Certain cultural projects benefited from immediate attention and funding while others with equal cases for assistance

but with less attraction to future tourist dollars languished New Orleans and its surroundings contain a diverse mixture of Native Americans African Americans Creoles Cajuns Isle os with roots in the Canary Islands and the descendants of Italian Irish English Croatian and German immigrants among others Since 2005 much is now different for the people of the Gulf Coast and much more stands to change as governments national and international nonprofit organizations churches and community groups determine how and even where life will continue This collection elucidates how this process occurs and seeks to understand the cultures that may be saved through assistance or may be allowed to fade away through neglect

Essays in Culture after the Hurricanes examine the ways in which a wide variety of stakeholders community activists elected officials artists and policy administrators describe quantify and understand the unique assets of the region Contributors question the process of cultural planning by analyzing the language employed in decision making They attempt to navigate between rhetoric and the actual experience of ordinary citizens examining the long term implications for those who call the Gulf Coast home

What Comes after Entanglement? Eva Haifa Giraud,2019-10-18 By foregrounding the ways that human existence is bound together with the lives of other entities contemporary cultural theorists have sought to move beyond an anthropocentric worldview Yet as Eva Haifa Giraud contends in What Comes after Entanglement for all their conceptual power in implicating humans in ecologically damaging practices these theories can undermine scope for political action Drawing inspiration from activist projects between the 1980s and the present that range from anticapitalist media experiments and vegan food activism to social media campaigns against animal research Giraud explores possibilities for action while fleshing out the tensions between theory and practice Rather than an activist ethics based solely on relationality and entanglement Giraud calls for what she describes as an ethics of exclusion which would attend to the entities practices and ways of being that are foreclosed when other entangled realities are realized Such an ethics of exclusion emphasizes foreclosures in the context of human entanglement in order to foster the conditions for people to create meaningful political change

Spain and its Muslim heritage. Culture in Conflict? Carolina Gerwin,2019-12-10 Essay aus dem Jahr 2017 im Fachbereich Politik Grundlagen und Allgemeines Note 8 0 Universiteit Leiden Sprache Deutsch Abstract The paper deals with the question of how the orientalist painting The surrender of Granada by Francisco Pradilla y Ortiz represents the capitulation of Granada in 1492 The essay argues that the painting is an example of the 19th century Orientalism in Spain as it stresses the dichotomy between Christianity and Islam by emphasizing the weakness of the Muslim other while highlighting the triumph of the Christian Monarchs Firstly the reasons for Spain s conflict regarding its Muslim heritage is given After that Pradilla s painting is analysed and put into the context of 19th century Orientalism Finally the contemporary situation in Spain is examined The year 1492 plays an important role in the country of Spain and especially the region of Al Andalus On the 2nd of January 1492 the last Islamic kingdom in Spain the Nasrid dynasty surrendered to King Ferdinand of Aragon and Queen Isabella of Castille also called the Catholic Monarchs in the Alhambra of Granada Over the next ten years Muslims who had stayed in Spain were forced to convert to Christianity were relocated and finally in the early 17th century banished from Spain This point already shows that the conflict between Muslims and Christians in Spain did not stop in 1492 but continued to remain According to McSweeney and Hopkins even nowadays the events that happened over 500 years ago still evoke problems as there is a discussion going on in Spain on how to incorporate its Muslim heritage with Spain s identity nowadays as a European and mostly Christian country
