underground to further their goal of having sabotage agents in England After a year of training in France under Nazi supervision Chapman was parachuted into England where he immediately turned himself over to the British Luckily so since MI5 which had already broken the German code knew exactly who Chapman was and what he was sent to England to do Like the Germans the British saw an opportunity to use Chapman as their own agent To convince the Nazis of Chapman s usefulness MI5 worked with him to fake the bombing of the factory producing the Mosquito bomber going so far as to plant newspaper stories and create the illusion when seen from above of complete devastation Chapman returned to Germany a hero with the Nazis awarding him the only British subject to receive one an Iron Cross MI5 had written at the time The Germans came to love Chapman but although he went cynically through all the forms he did not reciprocate Chapman loved himself loved adventure and loved his country probably in that order He returned to Britain after the war preparing several memoirs of his war time activities This edition includes several photographs and a new Preface by Steve Chadde Mrs Zigzag Betty Chapman, Dr Ronald L.
