A Companion to Portuguese Literature Thomas Foster Earle, Stephen Parkinson, Cláudia Pazos Alonso, 2013 An essential chronological framework for students of Portuguese literature This companion volume offers an introduction to European Portuguese literature for university level readers It consists of a chronological overview of Portuguese literature from the twelfth century to the present day by some of the most distinguished literary scholars of recent years leading into substantial essays centred on major authors genres or periods and a study of the history of translations It does not attempt an encyclopaedic coverage of Portuguese literature but provides essential chronological and bibliographical information on all major authors and genres with more extensive treatment of key works and literary figures and a particular focus on the modern period It is unashamedly canonical rather than thematic in its examination of central authors and periods without neglecting female writers In this way it provides basic reference materials for students beginning the study of Portuguese literature and for a wider audience looking for general or specific information The editors have made a principled decision to exclude both Brazilian and African literature which demand separate treatment
