The Department of Labor's ... Findings on the Worst Forms of Child Labor ,2004 School and Work in the Eastern Caribbean Andreas Blom,Cynthia Hobbs,World Bank,2008 As the global economy rapidly changes and new technologies are introduced more highly skilled workers are required In the Organization of Eastern Caribbean States OECS firms struggle to fill skilled positions due to a lack of qualified candidates while the number of unemployed low skilled workers is growing This report is organized into six chapters After this brief introduction the second chapter makes the argument for why skills matter to the OECS countries The subsequent three chapters emphasize how education school is intrinsically linked to the labor market both in providing initial preparation and training and in updating workers skills throughout adulthood lifelong learning Thus the third chapter discusses how adequately the schools in the OECS prepare youth for the labor market The fourth chapter focuses on the transition from the education system to the labor market The fifth chapter analyzes the opportunities for workers to continue learning while in the labor force The final chapter summarizes the main policy recommendations for improving education and training in the OECS Three transversal themes run through the report i deepening sub regional collaboration ii increasing involvement of the private sector in education and training and iii enhancing collaboration across different levels of the education and training systems Monitoring Educational Performance in the Caribbean Emanuela Di Gropello,2003 This study represents a first attempt of providing a comprehensive quantification of educational outcomes in the Caribbean region Its main objectives are a to define a set of operationally relevant education indicators b to provide a database of comparable education indicators in Caribbean countries where data is available namely Belize Dominica Dominican Republic Grenada Guyana Jamaica St Kitts and Nevis St Lucia St Vincent and the Grenadines and Trinidad and Tobago and c to propose methods on how the common set of indicators can be used for analyses of the education sectors This exercise is all the more important within the framework of the current Education For All EFA and Millenium Development Goals MDGs initiatives which require the identification and monitoring of relevant indicators to establish where the countries stand in relation to the target of universal primary education After a systematic review of educational indicators in coverage efficiency and quality which leads to specific recommendations on the type of indicator relevant to operational diagnostics of the education sectors the study provides a detailed review of the Caribbean status in producing education indicators and demonstrates how a new database can be used to depict where the education sectors stand Building on these methods and findings its final section presents a set of specific recommendations to the Caribbean countries on how to improve the diagnostics of their education sectors
