Todaro Economic Development 11th Edition:

Economic Development Michael P. Todaro, Stephen C. Smith, 2012 Economic Development is the leading textbook in this field providing a complete and balanced introduction to the requisite theory the driving policy issues and the latest research Todaro and Smith take a policy oriented approach presenting economic theory in the context of critical policy debates and country specific case studies so students see how theory relates to the problems and prospects of developing countries

Islamic Economics, Growth and Development Mustafa Metin Başbay, 2025-09-01 The study of economic development is inherently grounded in philosophical and ethical assumptions In other words to discuss economic development either at a conceptual level or as a real process necessitates an ethical and philosophical basis The authors of this book believe that Islamic economics can serve as such a basis one that emanates from Islamic principles and values This book presents a distinctive ethical and philosophical framework one that is grounded in Islamic principles and the established literature of Islamic economics and finance to analyse and interpret the concept of economic development as well as to propose policy solutions to real world development problems and challenges The book contains theoretical and empirical studies which connect the literature of Islamic economics with economic development While some chapters discuss development at the conceptual philosophical level others examine the real world issues faced by developing countries It proposes institutional constructs as well as concrete public policies to face developmental challenges such as fighting poverty and inequality environmental and social sustainability industrialisation and industrial policy and social services and human capital Serving as both an introduction and a comprehensive resource this book illustrates how the concepts and problems of economic development can be examined from an Islamic economics perspective and as such will equip researchers and students with a basic understanding of how Islamic economics interacts with the issues of economic development

African Economic Development Steven Langdon, Archibald R.M. Ritter, Yiagadeesen Samy, 2018-03-05 Sub Saharan Africa is at a turning point The barriers to economic growth seen in the 1980 2000 era are disappearing and new optimism is spreading However difficult goals of eliminating poverty achieving equity and overcoming environmental threats continue This much needed and insightful textbook has been written to help us understand this combination of emerging improvements and significant challenges Opening with an analysis of the main theories relating to development in Sub Saharan Africa the book explores all the key issues including Human development Rapid urbanization Structural and gender dimensions Sustainable development and environmental issues and Africa s role in the world economy The authors use economic tools and concepts throughout in a way that makes them accessible to students without an economics background Readers are also aided by a wide range of case studies on the ground examples and statistical information which provide a detailed analysis of each topic This text is also accompanied by an e resource featuring additional sources for students and instructors African Economic Development is a clear and comprehensive textbook suitable for courses on African economic development development economics African
