Visualisation and Epistemological Access to Mathematics Education in Southern Africa Marc Schäfer, 2023-04-27 This book demonstrates that using visualisation processes in mathematics education can help to enhance teaching and learning and bridge the inequality gap that exists between well resourced and under resourced schools in Southern Africa Drawing on classroom research conducted in the Southern African region it examines how epistemological access in a context of gross inequality can be constructively addressed by providing research based solutions and recommendations The book outlines the visualisation process as an integral but often overlooked process of mathematics teaching and learning It goes beyond the traditional understanding of visualisation processes such as picture forming and using tools and considers visualisation processes that are semiotic in nature and includes actions such as gestures in combination with language It adds value to the visualisation in mathematics education research discourse and deliberation in Africa With a unique focus on Southern Africa and open avenues for further research and collaboration in the region it will be a highly relevant reading for researchers academics and post graduate students of mathematics education comparative education and social justice education The Routledge Companion to Interdisciplinary Studies in Singing, Volume II: Education Helga R. Gudmundsdottir, Carol Beynon, Karen Ludke, Annabel J. Cohen, 2020-05-19 The Routledge Companion to Interdisciplinary Studies in Singing Volume II Education examines the many methods and motivations for vocal pedagogy promoting singing not just as an art form arising from the musical instrument found within every individual but also as a means of communication with social psychological and didactic functions Presenting research from myriad fields of study beyond music including psychology education sociology computer science linguistics physiology and neuroscience the contributors address singing in three parts Learning to Sing Naturally Formal Teaching of Singing Using Singing to Teach In 2009 the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada funded a seven year major collaborative research initiative known as Advancing Interdisciplinary Research in Singing AIRS Together global researchers from a broad range of disciplines addressed three challenging questions How does singing develop in every human being How should singing be taught and used to teach How does singing impact wellbeing Across three volumes The Routledge Companion to Interdisciplinary Studies in Singing consolidates the findings of each of these three questions defining the current state of theory and research in the field Volume II Education focuses on the second question and offers an invaluable resource for anyone who identifies as a singer wishes to become a singer works with singers or is interested in the application of singing for the purposes of education *Annual Report Mpumalanga (South Africa).
