The Posen Library of Jewish Culture and Civilization, Volume 9 Samuel D. Kassow, David G. Roskies, 2020-11-24

The Posen Library's groundbreaking anthology series called a feast of Jewish culture in ten volumes by the Chronicle of Higher Education explores in Volume 9 global Jewish responses to the years 1939 to 1973 a time of unprecedented destruction, dislocation, agency and creativity. An extensive look at Jewish civilization and culture from the eve of World War II to the Yom Kippur War. It's a weighty collection to be sure but one that's consistently engaging. An edifying and diverse survey of 20th century Jewish life. Kirkus Reviews starred review. Readers seeking primary texts, documents, images and artifacts constituting Jewish culture and civilization will not be disappointed. More important they might even be inspired. This set will serve to improve teaching and research in Jewish studies at institutions of higher learning and at the same time promote, maintain and improve understanding of the Jewish population and Judaism in general. Booklist starred review. The ninth volume of The Posen Library of Jewish Culture and Civilization covers the years 1939 to 1973 a period that editors Kassow and Roskies call one of the most tragic and dramatic in Jewish history. Organized geographically and then by genre, this book details Jewish cultural and intellectual resources throughout this era, particularly in political thought, literature, the visual and performing arts and religion. This volume explores worldwide Jewish perceptions of momentous events that transpired in the mid twentieth century and how Jews redefined themselves across regions throughout an era rife with tragedy, displacement and dispersion. The breadth and depth of this work goes beyond any comparable collection with detailed insights and sharp focus to accompany its breathtaking scope. A major ten volume anthology project more than a decade in the making, the Posen Library is an ideal reference tool for scholars, teachers and students at all levels. The
