MI6 Stephen Dorril, 2000 Shortlisted for the 2013 Nursery World Awards Margaret Carr's seminal work on Learning Stories was first published by SAGE in 2001 and this widely acclaimed approach to assessment has since gained a huge international following In this new full colour book the authors outline the philosophy behind Learning Stories and refer to the latest findings from the research projects they have led with teachers on learning dispositions and learning power to argue that Learning Stories can construct learner identities in early childhood settings and schools By making the connection between sociocultural approaches to pedagogy and assessment and narrative inquiry this book contextualizes Learning Stories as a philosophical approach to education learning and pedagogy Chapters explore how Learning Stories help make connections with families support the inclusion of children and family voices tell us stories about babies allow children to dictate their own stories can be used to revisit children's learning journeys can contribute to teaching and learning wisdom This ground breaking book expands on the concept of Learning Stories and includes examples from practice in both New Zealand and the UK It outlines the philosophy behind this pedagogical tool for documenting how learning identities are constructed and shows through research evidence why the early years is such a critical time in the formation of learning dispositions Margaret Carr is a Professor of Education at the University of Waikato New Zealand Wendy Lee is Director of the Educational Leadership Project New Zealand

Clandestine Lives of Colonel David Smiley Jones Clive Jones, 2019-05-21 Drawing on extensive interviews and archival research this biography uncovers the motivations and ideals that informed Smiley's commitment to covert action and intelligence during the Second World War and early part of the Cold War often among tribally based societies With particular reference to operations in Albania Oman and Yemen it addresses the wider issues of accountability and control of clandestine operations

Barbara Comyns Avril Horner, 2024-03-19 The extraordinary twentieth century writer Barbara Comyns led a life as captivating as the narratives she spun This pioneering biography reveals the journey of a woman who experienced hardship and single motherhood before the age of thirty but went on to publish a sequence of novels that are unique in the English language Comyns turned her hand to many jobs in order to survive from artist's model to restoring pianos Hundreds of unpublished letters reveal an occasionally desperate but resourceful and witty woman whose complicated life ranged from enduring poverty when young to mixing with spivs spies and high society While working as a housekeeper in her mid thirties Comyns began transforming the bleak episodes of her life into compelling fictions streaked with surrealism and deadpan humour The Vet's Daughter 1959 championed by Graham Greene brought her fame although her use of the gothic and macabre divided readers and reviewers This biography not only excavates Comyns's life but also reclaims her fiction providing a timely reassessment of her literary contribution It sheds new light on a remarkable author who deftly captured the complexities of human life

Tracing Your Secret Service Ancestors Phil Tomaselli, 2009-08-19 Did you have a spy in the family an ancestor who was involved in espionage at home or abroad If you have ever had any suspicions about the secret activities of your relatives or are curious about the long hidden history of Britain's secret services and those who served in them this is the book for you Phil Tomaselli's fascinating guide to over 200 years of British spies and spying takes the reader on a journey through the twilight world of the secret intelligence organizations Britain has run since the time of the French Revolution to the modern day and it shows where their records can be found

Franco's Friends Peter Day, 2011-10-31 Published to coincide with the 75th anniversary of the Falangist uprising in July 2011 Franco's Friends tells the little known true story of how MI6 orchestrated the coup that brought General Franco to power in Spain in 1936 leading to the Spanish civil war and 40 years of right wing dictatorship It has long been known that a British plane took Franco from the Canaries to Morocco at the start of the coup and that Major Hugh Pollard travelled on the plane from London masquerading as a tourist and accompanied by two attractive blondes to add to the deception that this was just a pleasure trip What is not known is the importance of his role and the extent of the involvement of the British intelligence services Franco's Friends shows that Pollard was a lifelong member of MI6 and discloses a list of Britons who helped engineer Franco's coup that reads like a who's who of British intelligence including James Bond creator Ian Fleming The book shows that MI6 continued working in Spain through to the Second World War putting together behind the scenes deals and ensuring that the UK's interests were maintained Crucially MI6 even financed bribes paid to the Spanish generals by the British naval attaché in Madrid to keep Spain neutral thus reaping the benefits for Britain in 1939-45 Franco's Friends based on previously unknown material from the National Archives Imperial War Museum the British Library and private archives is one of the great previously untold stories of the Second World War revealing how Britain made a dubious but difficult moral choice that would have repercussions on the outcome of the Second World War

A Critical Review Stephen Dorril, 2010 Apartheid's Friends James Sanders, 2006 Very little has been written about the South African secret intelligence but revelations to the Truth and Reconciliation Commission and the new culture of confessions now make that possible James Sanders has gathered classified documents and interviewed ex operatives since 1997 and has pieced together an extraordinary unsavoury picture of the Intelligence Service both inside South Africa and overseas He reveals evidence of state sponsored murder not only to intimidate the ANC but also to allow hard men within the police and the armed forces to let off steam He reveals that Republican political candidates in the US were assisted in elections against anti Apartheid Democrats He shows that South Africa supplied Argentina with weapons during the Falklands War and that Harold Wilson's surprising outbursts when he claimed that South African intelligence agents were trying to bring down his government were based on hard evidence At operational level South African Intelligence had intimate links with counterparts in the CIA British Intelligence and other agencies worldwide Apartheid's Friends not only provides an insight into a dark area of South Africa's past it is also an important contribution to the international history of secret service
