Dynamics of Critical Internet Culture \(1994-2001\) Geert Lovink, 2009 This study examines the dynamics of critical Internet culture after the medium opened to a broader audience in the mid 1990s It is Geert Lovink s PhD thesis submitted late 2002 written in between his two books on the same topic Dark Fiber 2002 and My First Recession 2003 The core of the research consists of four case studies of non profit networks the Amsterdam community provider The Digital City DDS the early years of the nettime mailinglist community a history of the European new media arts network Syndicate and an analysis of the streaming media network Xchange The research describes the search for sustainable community network models in a climate of hyper growth and increased tensions and conflict concerning moderation and ownership of online communities

Books and Beyond Kenneth Womack, 2008-10-30 There s a strong interest in reading for pleasure or self improvement in America as shown by the popularity of Harry Potter and book clubs including Oprah Winfrey s Although recent government reports show a decline in recreational reading the same reports show a strong correlation between interest in reading and academic acheivement This set provides a snapshot of the current state of popular American literature including various types and genres The volume presents alphabetically arranged entries on more than 70 diverse literary categories such as cyberpunk fantasy literature flash fiction GLBTQ literature graphic novels manga and anime and zines Each entry is written by an expert contributor and provides a definition of the genre an overview of its history a look at trends and themes a discussion of how the literary form engages contemporary issues a review of the genre s reception a discussion of authors and works and suggestions for further reading Sidebars provide fascinating details and the set closes with a selected general bibliography Reading in America for pleasure and knowledge continues to be popular even while other media compete for attention While students continue to read many of the standard classics new genres have emerged These have captured the attention of general readers and are also playing a critical role in the language arts classroom This book maps the state of popular literature and reading in America today including the growth of new genres such as cyberpunk zines flash fiction GLBTQ literature and other topics Each entry is written by an expert contributor and provides a definition of the genre an overview of its history a look at trends and themes a discussion of how the literary form engages contemporary issues a review of the genre s critical reception a discussion of authors and works and suggestions for further reading Sidebars provide fascinating details and the set closes with a selected general bibliography Students will find this book a valuable guide to what they re reading today and will appreciate its illumination of popular culture and contemporary social issues

Raising the Bar Alvin L. Reid,2002 Two thirds of today s teens are interested in having a meaningful relationship with God yet less than one third of them are active in a local church These statistics indicate that it is time to change how the church does youth ministry and this compelling book provides an impassioned plea for the church to set higher standards for ministry to teens and their families

Images in Law William Pencak,2016-05-13 What does the law look like While numerous attempts have been made to examine law and legal action in terms of its language little has yet been written that considers how visual images of the law influence its interpretation and execution in ways not discernible from written texts This groundbreaking collection focuses on images in law featuring contributions that show and discuss the perception of the legal universe on a theoretical basis or when dealing with visual semiotics dress ceremony technology etc It also examines language in action analyzing jury instructions police directives and how imagery is used in conjunction with contentious social and political issues within a country such as the image of family in Ireland or the image of racism in France
