Ninety Percent Of Everything By Rose George:

Ninety Percent of Everything Rose George, 2013-08-13 Eye opening and compelling the overlooked world of freight shipping revealed as the foundation of our civilization On ship tracking websites the waters are black with dots Each dot is a ship each ship is laden with boxes each box is laden with goods In postindustrial economies we no longer produce but buy We buy so we must ship Without shipping there would be no clothes food paper or fuel Without all those dots the world would not work Freight shipping has been no less revolutionary than the printing press or the Internet yet it is all but invisible Away from public scrutiny shipping revels in suspect practices dubious operators and a shady system of flags of convenience Infesting our waters poisoning our air and a prime culprit of acoustic pollution shipping is environmentally indefensible And then there are the pirates Rose George acclaimed chronicler of what we would rather ignore sails from Rotterdam to Suez to Singapore on ships the length of football fields and the height of Niagara Falls she patrols the Indian Ocean with an anti piracy task force she joins seafaring chaplains and investigates the harm that ships inflict on endangered whales Sharply informative and entertaining Ninety Percent of Everything reveals the workings and perils of an unseen world that holds the key to our economy our environment and our very civilization More&More Marina Zurkow, Sarah Rothberg, Surya Mattu, 2016-01-29 More More is an art and research project that explores the language and mechanics of global trade container shipping and the exchange of goods It questions a mercantile structure that by necessity disallows the presence of ocean as a real space in order to flatten the world into a Pangaea of capital The project is presented in two volumes released in conjunction with an exhibition of Marina Zurkow s work with collaborators Sarah Rothberg Surya Mattu and others at bitforms gallery in New York City in February 2016 This book More More The Invisible Oceans is a catalog of the exhibition featuring many full color images of the art on display including video stills bespoke bathing suits and fungal sculptures as well as an introduction by Marina Zurkow and a conversation between Zurkow and international curator Kathleen Forde Its companion book More More A Guide to the Harmonized System is an experimental brick of a book that intervenes in the Harmonized Commodity Description and Coding System also known as the HS Code The HS Code is the internationally accepted standard of product classification which codifies the way nations conduct import export All legal trade products and illegal ones that find loopholes are shipped using this system More More A Guide to the Harmonized System lists the astonishing variety of items that are shipped around the world and includes instructions for using the code to ship items both legally and illegally It also includes poetic personal and scholarly annotations by Stacy Alaimo Heather Davis Kathleen Forde Dylan Gauthier Elena Glasberg Calliope Mathios Steve Mentz Astrida Neimanis Chris Piuma Elspeth Probyn Sarah Rothberg Phil Steinberg Rita Wong and Marina Zurkow Postmarks from a Political Traveler Phil Karber, 2015-11-17 As spring and summer vacations beckon this book invites and incites a whole new approach to travel Postmarks from a Political Traveler is a series of travel recollections confronting the troubling topics of roots and racism polar bears and climate change anti

Americanism and the war in Afghanistan The book opens with the story of the author's experience growing up in the Jim Crow South traveling in apartheid South Africa and living in the post apartheid South Africa of 2009 and 2010 It explores the not so dissimilar roots and racism of the United States and South Africa as well as the cross fertilization of ideas between the two countries The next installment chronicles two trips to Churchill Manitoba where the planet's largest population of polar bears congregate each October It recounts the dramatic changes that have occurred in both the human and the polar bear communities in just the last decade and shows how the bears have become an Arctic version of the proverbial canary in the coalmine Then the book shifts to the author's journey back to the United States on a German freighter with a rabidly anti American captain Woven into this account of life aboard a long haul ship are threads of the author's travels and anti American encounters over a decade of living in Africa and Asia The book concludes with reflections on trips to Afghanistan in 2004 and in 2012 describing the effects of war and conflict zone politics on women education refugees and aid workers What ties these episodes together is the author's commitment to social justice and to changing the world through travel and writing that is affirming travel as a political act

Interpreting Naval History at Museums and Historic Sites Benjamin J. Hruska, 2016-08-09 Interpreting Naval History at Museums and Historic Sites demonstrates the broad appeal of naval themed commemoration centering on military aspects from both times of war and peace Transcending place and time naval history is shaped into public forums for modern day consumption These occurrences are not limited to just recent history as can be seen in the celebration of man's long history of transforming bodies of water from barriers into opportunities In addition with the modern day nation state naval history is not just limited to areas near large bodies of water as seen with landlocked states in the United States sharing in a proud naval tradition Examples of this included in the book are USS Arizona BB 39 and USS Missouri BB 63 Naval history is just one avenue with sites marking the history of immigration engineering technology and architecture Naval history also extends into lighthouses and port facility construction which are the background of a host of U S Generals in the U S Army with the Army Corps of Engineers which includes the Robert E Lee Using an international approach the book illustrates the intersection of the historical understanding of one's place and naval traditions Locating the boundaries one finds both the depth and breath of the topics linking and dividing water and man

Mobilizing the Metropolis Philip Mark Plotch, Jen Nelles, 2023-05-16 The Port Authority of New York and New Jersey has morphed in ways that would be unrecognizable to its founders Its mission evolved from improving rail freight to building motor vehicle crossings airports office towers and industrial parks and taking control of a failing commuter rail line In its early years the agency was often viewed with admiration however as it drew up plans negotiated to take control of airfields and marine terminals and constructed large bridges and tunnels the Port Authority became the object of less favorable attention It was attacked as a super government that must be reined in while the mayors of New York and Newark argued that it should be broken up with its pieces given to local governments for their own use Despite its criticisms and travails for over half a century the Port Authority overcame hurdles that had frustrated other public and private efforts built the world's longest suspension bridge and took a leading role in creating an organization to reduce traffic delays in the New York New Jersey region How did the Port Authority achieve these successes And what lessons does its history offer to other cities and regions in the United States and beyond In a time when public agencies are often condemned as inefficient and corrupt this history should provide some positive lessons for governmental officials and social reformers In 2021 the Port Authority marked its 100th birthday Its history reveals a struggle between the public and private sectors the challenges of balancing democratic accountability and efficiency and the tension between regional and local needs From selected Port Authority successes and failures Philip Mark Plotch and Jen Nelles produce a significant and engaging account of a powerful governmental entity that offers durable lessons on collaboration leadership and the challenge of overcoming complex political challenges in modern America Sweet Success Clemson Barry PhD.,2014-02-18 You can read this book or read the thirty four books that I have listed in the bibliography section in this book When I started job hunting I couldn't find a book that would teach me step by step everything that I needed to know how to get and keep a job while I build a successful business on the side and prepare for a smooth transition into my business This book still does not exist today so I have decided to use what I have learned and practice and write a book that would impact the lives of other people who will encounter the same difficulties that I have encountered many years ago The best part about this book is that you can read a chapter and apply what you have learned in thirty minutes I have also added a bonus chapter for you Doing Business Overseas I am proud to have developed and used those strategies and techniques in this book to get employment in several industries start and grow my company mentor new business owners and restructure my clients companies The information in the Hiring Employee and Leadership chapters has helped many applicants obtain their first jobs get new jobs and get promotions A chapter in this book will help job applicants over age fifty get back into the workplace Chapters and practical cases in this book will show you step by step how to manage your finances start or buy a business buy a franchise obtain financing price market and sell products do business overseas apply technology outsmart competitors and operate a profitable business in any economy Please send me your comments ClemBarry aol com website www ConsultantBarry com

Summary of Rose George's Ninety Percent of Everything Everest Media,2022-07-16T22:59:00Z Please note This is a companion version not the original book Sample Book Insights 1 The ship will become an astonishing remarkable thing thousands of tons of thousands of types of cargo floating on miles of water traveling safely to the other side of the world Kendal's job is to travel to Felixstowe Bremerhaven and Rotterdam 2 The people of Kendal live and work in the accommodation house a cream superstructure placed toward the rear of the ship The quarters are spacious because they usually house visiting officers The view out of the porthole is busy Every port between Felixstowe and Singapore requires boxes to be loaded and others to be discharged 3 The Suez Canal is a gateway to plenty beyond it Kendal will begin to gather what the East has made for the West and bring it home This is the pendulum of the supply chain and it swings with its own peculiar logic 4 Dinner is at six on B deck The crew mess is homely with a large cauldron of rice that is always full and a microwave with two settings Instant Ramen for one and Instant Ramen for two

The Big Necessity Rose George,2009-07-07 An extraordinary look at the stubborn problem of human waste disposal Among the best nonfiction books of the new millennium The New York Times Acclaimed as valuable and often entertaining Los Angeles Times The Big Necessity defies the taboo on bodily waste something common to all and as natural as breathing We prefer not to talk about it but we should even those of us who take care of our business in pristine sanitary conditions Disease spread by waste kills more people worldwide every year than any other single cause of death Even in America nearly two million people have no access to an indoor toilet Yet the subject remains unmentionable Moving from the underground sewers of Paris London and New York an infrastructure disaster waiting to happen to an Indian slum where ten toilets are shared by 60 000 people The Big Necessity breaks the silence revealing everything that matters about how people do and don t deal with their own waste With razor sharp wit and crusading urgency mixing levity with gravity Rose George has turned the subject we like to avoid into a cause with the most serious of consequences One smart book delving deep into the history and implications of a daily act that dare not speak its name Newsweek Makes a passionate argument for putting sanitation at the top of the world s development agenda Time With irreverence and pungent detail George breaks the embarrassed silence over the economic political social and environmental problems of human waste disposal Full of fascinating facts an intrepid erudite and entertaining journey through the public consequences of this most private behavior Publishers Weekly starred review
