Handbook of Gentrification Studies Loretta Lees, Martin Phillips, 2018-04-27 It is now over 50 years since the term gentrification was first coined by the British urbanist Ruth Glass in 1964 in which time gentrification studies has become a subject in its own right This Handbook the first ever in gentrification studies is a critical and authoritative assessment of the field Although the Handbook does not seek to rehearse the classic literature on gentrification from the 1970s to the 1990s in detail it is referred to in the new assessments of the field gathered in this volume The original chapters offer an important dialogue between existing theory and new conceptualisations of gentrification for new times and new places in many cases offering novel empirical evidence

Handbook on Geographies of Technology Barney Warf, 2017-02-24 This Handbook offers an insightful and comprehensive overview from a geographic perspective of the numerous and varied technologies that are shaping the contemporary world It shows how geography and technology are intimately linked by examining the origins growth and impacts of 27 different technologies and highlighting how they influence the structure and spatiality of society Geographies of Mobility Mei-Po Kwan, Tim Schwanen, 2018-10-11 This book seeks to bring together different philosophical theoretical and methodological approaches to the study of human mobility within the discipline of geography With five thematic sections conceptualizing and analyzing mobility inequalities of mobility politics of mobility decentering mobility and qualifying abstraction and 27 substantive chapters by leading researchers in the field it provides a comprehensive overview of the latest thinking about human mobility and related issues The contributors discuss mobility issues as diverse as everyday mobilities of young people migrants and refugees and sex workers the relationships between citizenship and mobility and the potential and pitfalls of big data for understanding mobility This coupled with a broad international focus means that Geographies of Mobility will not only encourage and enrich dialogue on a theme that is of major importance to varied geographic research communities but will also be of great interest to students and researchers across the wider social sciences This book was originally published as a special issue of Annals of the American Association of Geographers 2015 Sunset Review, Commodity Metals Theft Task Force, Council of Higher Education Representatives, Infection Control Advisory Committee, Special Education Fiscal Advisory Committee Colorado. Department of Regulatory Agencies. Office of Policy, Research, and Regulatory Reform, 2015 Handbook on the Geographies of Innovation Richard Shearmur, Christophe Carrincazeaux, David Doloreux, 2016-11-25 The geography of innovation is changing Firstly it is increasingly understood that innovative firms and organizations exhibit a wide variety of strategies each differently attuned to diverse geographic contexts Secondly and concomitantly the idea that cities clusters and physical proximity are essential for innovation is evolving under the weight of new theorizing and empirical evidence The aim of this handbook is to break with the many ideas and concepts that emerged during the course of the 1980s and 1990s and to fully take into account the new reality of the internet mobile communication technologies personal mobility and globalization The handbook gathers a new generation of ideas and authors to contribute to the debate providing an empirically grounded critical appraisal of the prevailing knowledge on the geography of innovation The 28 original chapters written by a diverse range of scholars with widely differing views present fresh empirical evidence and new perspectives relating to how innovation plays out across space in an age where mobility has increased information is ubiquitous and globalisation has been realised Overall the dialogue between existing theory and new possibilities provides a unique and challenging appraisal of the connection between innovation agglomeration and space Offering cutting edge ideas in an accessible format this will be an ideal resource for students and scholars of economic geography and innovation studies The empirical evidence and analysis will also be of great value for policymakers and government officials Contributors include B T Asheim H W Aslesen A Bain P A Balland N Bradford A Bramwell C Brennan
