2018 Commission Work Programme Annex I New Initiatives:

The External Dimension of the EU's Policy against Trafficking in Human Beings Chloé Brière, 2021-04-08 This book explores the external dimension of the ambitious EU policy on human trafficking Through this policy the EU institutions and Member States promote the eradication of human trafficking and support to that end cooperation with their partners being third States or international organisations Analysing the unilateral and multilateral mechanisms the EU uses to achieve these aims the book questions whether the EU's external response to human trafficking addresses it in all its dimensions and whether it does so in a coherent way As a case study the book explores the cooperation of the EU with countries of the Western Balkans which constitutes a specific unilateral mechanism The analysis of the multilateral mechanisms covers the cooperation of the EU with key international and regional organisations combating human trafficking including but not limited to the Council of Europe or the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime The book also examines the impact of the evolution of migration flows and the increasing reliance of military tools on the EU's response to human trafficking

Commission Work Programme 2022, 2021 The European Union and the Use of Force Julia Schmidt, 2020-09-07 In The European Union and the Use of Force Julia Schmidt examines the development and activities of the EU as an emerging international military actor The author offers a comprehensive analysis of the conditions under which the EU can engage in military crisis management operations from the perspective of EU law as well as from the perspective of public international law with a particular emphasis on the EU's relationship with the United Nations and the EU's relationship with its Member States in the context of the use of force Throughout the monograph questions of European integration in the sphere of the common security and defence policy as well as the EU's place and role within the international community are put into focus

Adjusted Commission Work Programme 2020, 2020 Urban Freight, land use planning and public administration strategies Edoardo Marcucci, Valerio Gatta, Laetitia Dablanc, 2019-11-25 Cities are the engines of an innovation based economy where research and new ideas are the core input of production Urbanisation is becoming synonymous of economic growth People flock into cities both in the developed and developing world since here is where wealth is where high quality services are available and life standards are comparatively higher with respect to other places However one has to acknowledge that growth also produces undesired negative effects In fact cities are net importers They need to acquire consumption intermediate goods export production and get rid of waste In other words the existence of a city relies on a transportation system providing the necessary services for its functioning The typical urban transportation system heavily depends on passenger and freight movements by road While this dependency is in some cases less relevant for passenger transport most of freight moved in out within and through a city relies on motorized road transportation Trucks and vans are responsible for congestion polluting emissions accidents noise visual intrusion and stench All these negative effects are concentrated where many citizens live and consequently produce relevant economic e.g time lost environmental e g air quality and social e.g segregation impacts Cities to be attractive sustainable and thriving need an efficient freight transportation system Fast changing consumption patterns with the rise of e commerce and home deliveries also point out to another dimension of cities their need to adapt quickly to economic trends

The evolving role of national parliaments in the European Union Gavin Barrett,2018-03-05 This book examines the gradually increasing role of national parliaments in the European Union and asks how and why this came about It takes Ireland as a case study examining the relationship between Ireland s parliament the Oireachtas and the European Union It also focuses sharply on parliament s role in European affairs in Ireland a jurisdiction of strong comparative interest to the UK It examines the evolution in national parliaments roles the reasons for change and the challenges that must be faced in making further progress The book analyses Ireland s slow parliamentary adaptation to European integration analyses the impact of the Lisbon Treaty and economic crises in accelerating reform and identifies where improvement is still badly needed Malawi National Export Strategy 2013-2018: Annexes 1-5 ,2012 Malawi National Export Strategy 2013-2018: Main document ,2012
