Flowers in the Mirror Ju-Chen Li, 2015-07-07 Written by Li Ju chen during the Qing dynasty Flowers in the Mirror is a classic novel of Chinese literature It is full of fanciful tales The term Flowers in the Mirror is an idiomatic phrase meaning illusion An example is a moon as seen upon a body of water which appears to be close and near but it is a mere reflection Empress Wu Tse tien The stories are set during the reign of Wu Tse tien female ruler Wu was actually an Empress of China who ruled from 690 to 705 Her reign was a part of the short lived Zhou dynasty which interrupted the Tang dynasty Some traditional historians portray Wu as a power hungry woman who cared little for those who she hurt nor what she did A popular theory is that Wu killed her own child in order to become the empress She was recognized however as both capable and attentive even by traditional historians who disliked her behavior She had an ability to select capable people to serve as officials She was admired for this trait throughout the Tang and subsequent dynasties Wu was the only female emperor of China in more than four millennia Fall from Grace The story begins with a terrible blizzard In show of hubris Empress Wu issues a decree that all flowers must bloom At the time the fairy of a hundred flowers ruler of all flowers in the celestial realm goes on a personal visit to Maku another fairy In her absence her subordinate fairies in response to the decree take the initiative of blooming on their own The Jade Emperor the ruler of all the heavens noting this subordination punishes the fairy of a hundred flowers He forces her to reincarnate in the human world She reincarnates as the daughter of Tang Ao Strange and Fantastic Lands Previously Tang Ao an aspiring bureaucratic scholar took the official scholars examination and had passed the exam gaining an exalted official title However because of his association with a failed coup against the Empress Wu his title is revoked Despairing and disillusioned with the scholarly bureaucracy Tang boards a sailboat and with his brother in law Merchant Lin and a hired sailor Old Tou The three travelers sail on the open sea and visit various fantastic and strange countries They also encounter a variety of bizarre characters First is the country of the gentlemen Merchants there try to sell their best quality goods at the cheapest price while customers haggle and to pay more for merchandise In the country of the Giants virtuous people have rainbows under their feet Wicked people have dark clouds under their feet The government officials of this country cover their feet with multicolored robes cover so no one can tell if they have rainbows or clouds under their feet In the two faced kingdom people have two faces one in the front and one in the back The faces in front are smiling and the faces in the back are ugly The people of this kingdom are deceptive Another country has only people who always lie and never tell the truth There are many other such strange countries The first half of the book describes the adventures of Tang Ao and his companions as they travel overseas by boat      American Florist , 1892

 An international journal of general philosophy     The Play in the Mirror Matthew D. Stroud, 1996 As a psychoanalyst with massive humanistic erudition Jacques Lacan has a great deal to offer any discipline concerned with the human condition The Play in the Mirror seeks to bring together some of Lacan's fundamental concepts primarily from his Ecrits and from Seminars 1 2 7 11 and 20 as well as texts from ten Spanish Baroque comedias that also deal with the human condition The Play in the Mirror does not try to psychoanalyze characters and its scope extends to spectators readers and literary critics who are also subject to the same lack otherness and desire In a play the subjects linked by the mirrors are the author and the spectator brought together through language and desire through the theatrical performance All plays and all critical articles are expressions of the desires of the creators The critical act represents the intersubjective relationship marked with the misunderstanding defensiveness rivalry and attempts to dominate that characterize all dealings between two subjects Even in criticism the desire of the split subject insists Throughout the book the focus is on the more philosophical underpinnings of both discourses The premodern comedia and Lacan's postmodern perspective seem naturally to inform each other regarding the essential lack at the core of the human subject the insistence of desire and the inevitable failure of efforts to establish a unified subject an orderly society or a single valid interpretation of a literary text BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved     Flowers in the Mirror (Li Ju-chen) Shi Hu, 1934
