It begins with a family of weavers in ancient Eastern Bengal who fleeing British oppression settle in West Bengal near the Bhagirathi River. Their fortunes change when they rise from poverty to become a royal dynasty thanks to a divine decree and the acquisition of a gold crown. However the insatiable desire for the crown becomes their undoing as it unleashes a series of devastating events that ultimately lead to their downfall. The author masterfully weaves together elements of the paranormal toxic relationships and unethical actions all of which become magnetized by the power of gold. Throughout the narrative the book also highlights the strength and resilience of feminine beings. It delves into the history of muslin a fabric associated with femininity to illustrate how women have used it as a symbol of protection and empowerment.
