Writing is a way you can let go without explaining orally. Which is what inspired me to create a journal. If you feel like I do at times or know someone who would benefit, this journal has affirmations for each week of a full calendar year and a space to reflect. Reflection helps when you write it down and down the road you can see how far you have come. This journal is for women, teens, men, educators, professionals, and whoever else needs a sunshine of positive in their lives all year long. Life is tough with all capital letters. Often we may find ourselves participating in negative self talk. Using daily affirmations and reflecting on the week can be one of the best steps on all in self improvement and care.
