Bosnia A Short History:

Bosnia Noel Malcolm, 2002 This work aims to set the war in the Balkans in its full historical and political context This edition includes a chapter covering the events between 1993 and 1995

Re-envisioning Peacekeeping François Debrix, 1999 Time and again the United Nations has deployed peacekeeping missions in trouble spots around the globe Iraq Somalia Bosnia Rwanda Has peace ensured Have these missions in fact made any difference in the disorder and destruction they are purported to forestall Or are they as François Debrix contends an illusion more virtual peacekeeping than actual interventions in international affairs Re Envisioning Peacekeeping is a critical revisiting of UN interventions Addressing the question How do UN peacekeeping missions shape the contemporary vision of international affairs the book applies the notions of simulation and ideology to the practice and theory of international organization Debrix focuses on the media strategies that give UN missions the appearance of effectiveness and that promote liberal ideologies of governance Debrix shows how the UN missions in Iraq Somalia and Bosnia attempted to simulate a landscape of ordered international politics a New World Order by disseminating visual renditions of peaceful intervention and humanitarian assistance As a result of these sometimes elaborate efforts Debrix finds the UN peacekeeping missions of the past decade represent a study in visual simulation which has nothing to do with actual matters of international life in the 1990s

A Muslim Reformist in Communist Yugoslavia Sejad Mekić, 2016-07-01 A Muslim Reformist in Communist Yugoslavia examines the Islamic modernist thought of Husein ozo a prominent Balkan scholar Born at a time when the external challenges to the Muslim world were many and its internal problems both complex and overwhelming ozo made it his goal to reinterpret the teachings of the Qur an and had th prophetic tradition to a generation for whom the truths and realities of Islam had fallen into disuse As a Muslim scholar who lived and worked in a European communist multi cultural and multi religious society Husein ozo and his work present us with a particularly exciting account through which to examine the innovative interpretations of Islam For example through a critical analysis of ozo s most significant fatw s and other relevant materials this book examines the extent of the inherent flexibility of the Islamic law and its ability to respond to Muslim interests in different socio political conditions Since ozo s writings in general and his fatw s in particular have continued to be published in the Balkan lands up to the present this monograph should help shed some light on certain assumptions underlying modern Islamic thought and consciousness found in the region

Wounded I Am More Awake Julia Lieblich, Esad Boskailo, 2012 Wounded I Am More Awake follows the story of Esad Boskailo a doctor who survives six concentration camps in Bosnia and emerges with powerful new lessons for healing in an age of genocide This gripping account raises questions for healers survivors and readers striving to understand the reality of war and the aftermath of terror Is it possible to find meaning after enduring crimes against humanity Can people heal after trauma Human rights journalist Julia Lieblich takes the reader through Boskailo s early years under Tito to the wars when friends turned on friends She documents his harrowing experiences in the camps where the men he once joined for coffee murder his best friend from childhood But the story does not end there Boskailo moves to the United States and decides to become a psychiatrist so he can guide survivors through the long term process of restoring hope Today inspired by the late psychiatrist and Holocaust survivor Viktor Frankl Boskailo uses his own experience to help patients mourn their losses and find meaning in the aftermath of terror

Corporations, Global Governance, and Post-conflict Reconstruction Peter Davis,2013 In the past two decades the international community has shown an increased proclivity to engage in programmes of post conflict reconstruction in the aftermath of wars During the same period increased globalisation has meant that multinational companies have grown greatly in size and influence and have begun to challenge existing notions of governance at a global level Here Peter Davis explores the reconstruction processes that have taken place in Azerbaijan Bosnia and Rwanda Based on extensive field work as well as existing literature this book plots the recovery of these countries from conflict and examines in detail the role that international companies have played in that process The book also explores how companies impacts on reconstruction are governed both by the companies themselves and by the host government and international agencies managing the rebuilding process

From Peoples into Nations John Connelly,2020-01-21 A sweeping narrative history of Eastern Europe from the late eighteenth century to today In the 1780s the Habsburg monarch Joseph II decreed that henceforth German would be the language of his realm His intention was to forge a unified state from his vast and disparate possessions but his action had the opposite effect catalyzing the emergence of competing nationalisms among his Hungarian Czech and other subjects who feared that their languages and cultures would be lost In this sweeping narrative history of Eastern Europe since the late eighteenth century John Connelly connects the stories of the region s diverse peoples telling how at a profound level they have a shared understanding of the past An ancient history of invasion and migration made the region into a cultural landscape of extraordinary variety a patchwork in which Slovaks Bosnians and countless others live shoulder to shoulder and where calls for national autonomy often have had bloody effects among the interwoven ethnicities Connelly traces the rise of nationalism in Polish Austro Hungarian and Ottoman lands the creation of new states after the First World War and their later absorption by the Nazi Reich and the Soviet Bloc the reemergence of democracy and separatist movements after the collapse of communism and the recent surge of populist politics throughout the region Because of this common experience of upheaval East Europeans are people with an acute feeling for the precariousness of history they know that nations are not eternal but come and go sometimes they disappear
