Breath, Eyes, Memory Edwidge Danticat, 2019 Summary

Vodou in Haitian Memory Celucien L. Joseph, Nixon S. Cleophas, 2016-05-12 Throughout Haitian history from 17th century colonial Saint Domingue to 21st century postcolonial Haiti arguably the Afro-Haitian religion of Vodou has been represented as an unsettling faith and a cultural paradox as expressed in various forms and modes of Haitian thought and life including literature history law politics painting music and art Competing voices and conflicting ideas of Vodou have emerged from each of these cultural symbols and intellectual expressions The Vodouist discourse has not only pervaded every aspect of the Haitian life and experience it has defined the Haitian cosmology and worldview Further the Vodou faith has had a momentous impact on the evolution of Haitian intellectual aesthetic and literary imagination comparatively Vodou has shaped Haitian social ethics sexual and gender identity and theological discourse such as in the intellectual works and poetic imagination of Jean Price Mars Dantes Bellegarde Jacques Roumain Jacques Stephen Alexis etc Similarly Vodou has shaped the discourse on the intersections of memory trauma history collective redemption and Haitian diasporic identity in Haitian women's writings such as in the fiction of Edwidge Danticat Myriam Chancy etc The chapters in this collection tell a story about the dynamics of the Vodou faith and the rich ways Vodou has molded the Haitian narrative and psyche The contributors of this book examine this constructed narrative from a multicultural voice that engages critically the discipline of ethnomusicology drama performance art anthropology ethnography economics literature intellectual history philosophy psychology sociology religion and theology Vodou is also studied from multiple theoretical approaches including queer feminist theory critical race theory Marxism postcolonial criticism postmodernism and psychoanalysis international scholars this is the most up to date and in depth reference guide to 21st century scholarship on Edwidge Danticat's work. The Bloomsbury Handbook to Edwidge Danticat covers such topics as the full range of Danticat's writing from her novels and short stories to essays, life writing, and writing for children and young adults. Major interdisciplinary scholarly perspectives including from establishing fields of literary studies, Caribbean Studies, Political Science, Latin American Studies, feminist and gender studies, African Diaspora Studies, and emerging fields such as Environmental Studies. Danticat's literary sources and influences from Haitian authors such as Marie Chauvet, Jacques Roumain, and Jacques St. Phen Alexis to African American authors like Zora Neale Hurston, Toni Morrison, and Caribbean American writers Audre Lorde to Paule Marshall. Known and unknown historical moments in experiences of slavery and imperialism, the consequence of internal and external migration, and the formation of diasporic communities. The book also includes a comprehensive bibliography of Danticat's work and key works of secondary criticism and an interview with the author as well as essays by Danticat herself.

Summarized and Analyzed: Breath, Eyes, Memory Student World, 2017-10-20. Edwidge Danticat, the author of Breath, Eyes, Memory, spent her childhood in Haiti and when she was a young girl she moved to New York City. Breath, Eyes, Memory is her first novel, published in 1994. It is notable that the author was only twenty-five years old when this novel was first published. It was a great achievement for this young writer. While speaking to the media people during her several interviews, she said that she had first started writing Breath, Eyes, Memory as an essay during her school time in Haiti. She later expanded it into a complete book when she was twenty-five years old.

Narrating History, Home, and Dyaspora Maia L. Butler, Joanna Davis-McElligatt, Megan Feifer, 2022-06-27. Winner of a 2023 Edited Collection Award from the South Atlantic Modern Language Association. Contributions by Cécile Accilien, Maria Rice Bellamy, Gwen Bergner, Olga Blomgren, Maia L. Butler, Isabel Caldeira, Nadège T. Clitandre, Thadious M. Davis, Joanna Davis, McElligatt, Laura Dawkins, Megan Feifer, Delphine Gras, Akia Jackson, Tammie Jenkins, Shewonda Leger, Jennifer M. Lozano, Marion Christina Rohrleitner, Thomas Rothe, Erika V. Serrato, Lucia Stecher, and Joyce White. Narrating History, Home, and Dyaspora: Critical Essays on Edwidge Danticat contains fifteen essays addressing how Edwidge Danticat's writing, anthologizing, and storytelling trace, re-construct, and develop alternate histories, narratives of nation building, and conceptions of home and belonging. The prolific Danticat is renowned for novels, collections of short fiction, nonfiction, and editorial writing. As her experimentation in form expands, so does her force as a public intellectual. Danticat's literary representations, political commentary, and personal activism have proven vital to classroom and community work, imagining radical futures. Among increasing anti-immigrant sentiment and containment and rampant ecological volatility, Danticat's contributions to public discourse, art, and culture deserve sustained critical attention. These essays offer essential perspectives to scholars, public intellectuals, and students interested in African diasporic, Haitian, Caribbean, and transnational American literary studies. This collection frames Danticat's work as an indictment of statelessness, racialized and gendered state violence, and the persistence of political and economic margins. The first section of this volume The Other Side of the Water engages with Danticat's construction and negotiation of nation both in Haiti and the United States the broader diaspora and her own her family's and her fictional characters places within them The second section Welcoming Ghosts delves into the ever present specter of history and memory prominent themes found throughout Danticat's work From origin stories to broader Haitian histories this section addresses the underlying traumas involved when remembering the past and its relationship to the present The third section I Speak Out explores the imperative to speak paying particular attention to the narrative form with which such telling occurs The fourth and final section Create Dangerously contends with Haitians activism community building and the political and ecological climate of Haiti and its diaspora

Taking Flight Jennifer Donahue, 2020-07-23 Caribbean women have long utilized the medium of fiction to break the pervasive silence surrounding abuse and exploitation Contemporary works by such authors as Tiphonie Yanique and Nicole Dennis Benn illustrate the deep rooted consequences of trauma based on gender sexuality and race and trace the steps that women take to find safer ground from oppression Taking Flight examines the immigrant experience in contemporary Caribbean women's writing and considers the effects of restrictive social mores In the texts examined in Taking Flight culturally sanctioned violence impacts the ability of female characters to be at home in their bodies or in the spaces they inhabit The works draw attention to the historic racialization and sexualization of black women's bodies and continue the legacy of narrating black women's long standing contestation of systems of oppression Arguing that there is a clear link between trauma shame and migration with trauma serving as a precursor to the protagonist's emigration Jennifer Donahue focuses on how female bodies are policed how moral racial and sexual codes are linked and how the enforcement of social norms can function as a form of trauma Donahue considers the relationship between trauma shame and sexual politics and investigates how shame works as a social regulator that frequently leads to withdrawal or avoidant behaviors in those who violate socially sanctioned mores Most importantly Taking Flight positions flight as a powerful counter to disempowerment and considers how flight whether through dissociation or migration functions as a form of resistance
