Leading, Managing and Developing

People Gary Rees, Raymond French, 2016-04-15 Leading Managing and Developing People is critical reading for all those studying the CIPD Level 7 Advanced module in Leading Managing and Developing People as well as all HR and L D practitioners. It provides extensive coverage of the aims, objectives and contribution of HRM such as the scope and nature of human resources, HR's role when organisations grow and how to ensure professionalism and ethical behaviour when managing people. This book also includes discussion of major contemporary themes in leading, managing and developing people including leadership, development, flexibility, agile working and the psychological contract. This ensures that readers are fully prepared to lead, manage and develop staff in the new world of work. With rigorous academic underpinning and clear theoretical exploration, Leading Managing and Developing People also includes practical advice on key activities including recruitment, job design, performance management, motivation and reward. Supported by online resources including an instructor's manual, lecture slides, international case studies, example essay questions and annotated web links, this is an indispensable guide for both students and practitioners.

Designing, Delivering and Evaluating L&D Jim Stewart, Peter Cureton, 2014-05-28 As the global economy has changed and thus organizations with it, more learning is delivered at and through work and individuals are encouraged to utilise the opportunities that advances in technology have brought to take charge of their own learning. Essential reading for the CIPD Level 7 Advanced postgraduate unit Designing, Delivering and Evaluating Learning and Development Provision, Designing, Delivering and Evaluating L D critically examines the contextual factors impacting upon these activities in organizations. With case studies from the public, private and voluntary sectors as well as examples of international practice, the book helps to identify some of the challenges L D professionals face in a range of environments. Designing, Delivering and Evaluating L D is suitable not just for students working towards a CIPD Level 7 qualification but also for those studying more general business and management degrees as well as anyone who may have studied the subject previously and wishes to engage in continuous professional development with regard to this key HR practice. Online supporting resources include an instructor's manual, lecture slides and web links.

Employee Voice and Participation Jeff Hyman, 2018-06-13 Employee participation and voice (EPV) concern power and influence. Traditionally, EPV has encompassed worker attempts to wrest control from employers through radical societal transformation or to share control through collective regulation by trade unions. This book offers a controversial alternative, arguing that in recent years participation has shifted direction. In Employee Voice and Participation, the author contends that participation has moved away from employee attempts to secure autonomy and influence over organisational affairs to one in which management ideas and initiatives have taken centre stage. This shift has been bolstered in the UK and USA by economic policies that treat regulation as an obstacle to competitive performance. Through an examination of the development of ideas and practice surrounding employee voice and participation, this volume tracks the story from the earliest attempts at securing worker control through to the rise of trade unions and today's managerial efforts to contain union influence. It also explores the negative consequences of these changes and though the outlook is pessimistic considers possible approaches to address the growing power imbalance between employers and workers Employee Voice and Participation will be an excellent supplementary text for advanced students of employment relations and Human Resource Management HRM It will also be a valuable read for researchers policy makers trade unions and HRM professionals
