Orogenies of Light Richard Leviton, 2019-10-29 ONE DAY IN 2084 EARTH S ORIGINAL MOUNTAINS SUDDENLY REAPPEARED ON THE PLANET AS 85 000 DOMED CANOPIES OF LIGHT FROM THE STARS The story of this return is told by Blaise a well informed but mysterious figure who claims to be an engineer 134 years old and part of an ancient team that first designed the planet It s a chronicle of his last field assignment a unique career retrospective and a firsthand account of the momentous return of the domes These are giant half spheres of Light that originally helped create the biosphere and were the Earth s first mountains They generated the Earth s sacred sites and the mythic homes of the gods and linked them all in a global pattern of Light The domes arrived all at once and started to reorganize the global landscape It was their fourth visit and it would be several perilous years as the planet adjusts to it Blaise and his team of geomancers travel across the Earth and time to deal with the unprecedented perturbations set in motion by this celestial rescue of the planet Problems are rife the revolt of Pan and the Nature Spirits the continuing dark interference by humanity s ghostly forebears the resurgence of Babylon and its imperious agenda and the planet s dangerous drift towards becoming flattened like a hockey puck But the opportunities are fabulous too as the planet enters an era of unceasing Light and beatific conditions The return of the domes lays bare the true history of the Earth how it diminished from perfection the benign superintendents of this bold experiment and who its earliest inhabitants were and the massive problems they created which still affect us today It is a genuinely apocalyptic moment as the Earth reveals its original bright pattern of energy and consciousness and starts at last to fulfill its destiny

False Dawn Lee Penn, 2004 The interfaith movement which began with the 1893 World's Parliament of Religions in Chicago has grown worldwide. Although this movement has been largely unknown to the public, it now provides a spiritual face for globalization, the economic and political forces leading us all from nationalism to One World. The most ambitious organization in today's interfaith movement is the United Religions Initiative (URI) founded by William Swing, the Episcopal Bishop of California. Investigative reporter Lee Penn, a Catholic ex-Marxist, exhaustively documents the history and beliefs of the URI and its New Age and globalist allies, the vested interests that support these movements, and the direction they appear to be taking. The interfaith movement is no longer merely the province of a coterie of little-heeded religious idealists with grandiose visions. The URI's proponents have ranged from billionaire George Soros to President George W. Bush, from the far right Rev. Sun Myung Moon to the liberal Catholic theologian Hans Küng, and from the Dalai Lama to the leaders of government-approved Protestant churches in the People's Republic of China. The interfaith movement, including the URI, is being promoted by globalist and New Age reformers who favor erosion of national sovereignty, marginalization of traditional religions, establishment of global governance, and creation of a new Earth-based global spirituality, in effect, a one-world religion. Therefore, the URI and the interfaith movement are poised to become the spiritual foundation of the New World Order, the new civilization now proposed by Mikhail Gorbachev, the last leader of the Soviet Union.

In The Reign of Quantity and the Signs of the Times, French metaphysician René Guénon spoke of the anti-tradition, the forces of materialism and secular humanism, finally giving way to the counter-tradition, the satanic inversion of true spirituality, leading to the regime of Antichrist. The anti-tradition weakens and dissolves traditional spiritualities, after which the counter-tradition sets up a counterfeit in their place. Since Guénon's time, as is well known, anti-traditional forces have greatly advanced worldwide. It is less well known that counter-traditional movements have also made great strides and now stand closer to the centers of global political and religious power than ever before. The counter-tradition is making inroads on the political and cultural Right as much as it is doing on the Left. False Dawn painstakingly documents these trends and speculates on their future development. In so doing, the author takes investigative reporting to the threshold of prophecy and gives us a stunningly plausible picture of the global religious landscape of the 21st century. This extraordinary project is the literary equivalent of turning over a flat rock. There is much to be seen and learned here, all of it unsettling, disquieting, occasionally downright scary.

William Murchison Radford, Distinguished Professor, Baylor University: When a bishop of a Christian church happily worships alongside a Wiccan invoking other gods, something has gone horribly wrong. In False Dawn, Lee Penn has produced a comprehensive and critical history of the United Religions Initiative. This book sounds a clear warning: Anyone who makes theological truth subservient to utopianism denigrates all religions. Douglas LeBlanc, Editor, GetReligion.org
