Percy Evans Lewin, 1906 Catalogue of the Reference and Lending Departments: General literature and fiction Port Elizabeth Public Library (Port Elizabeth, South Africa), 1906 The Shadow Catchers Thomas Lakeman, 2024-07-02 FBI Special Agent Mike Yeager is in trouble His most recent case a child kidnapping his usual ended tragically and the FBI has suspended him Worse Mike can't seem to forgive himself He's run away from everything he knows in Philadelphia to the mountains of Nevada in an attempt to forget Now in Nevada he's stumbled into the world of a killer in the small town of San Cristobal one child was killed accidentally or so it seems a few weeks before Mike's arrival The day after he shows up an adult is murdered and soon another child disappears Mike doesn't want to get involved but he can't help himself first because as a stranger in town he's got to prove to the local law enforcement that he's not the killer and second because he's in the perfect place to solve the case and redeem himself in the eye of the FBI Not to mention that at least one more child's life is at stake Thomas Lakeman is one of those rare talents who has composed a first novel that doesn't read like a debut at all but instead is written with the precision and tightly drawn suspense of one of the genre's masters Living Pictures, Missing Persons Mark B. Sandberg, 2021-10-12 In the late nineteenth century Scandinavian urban dwellers developed a passion for a new utterly modern sort of visual spectacle objects and effigies brought to life in astonishingly detailed realistic scenes The period 1880-1910 was the popular high point of mannequin display in Europe Living Pictures Missing Persons explores this phenomenon as it unfolded with the rise of wax museums and folk museums in the largest cities of Denmark Sweden and Norway Mark Sandberg asks Why did modernity generate a cultural fascination with the idea of effigy He shows that the idea of effigy is also a portal to understanding other aspects of visual entertainment in that period including the widespread interest in illusionistic scenes and tableaux in the portability of sights spaces and entire milieus Sandberg investigates this transformation of visual culture outside the usual test cases of the largest European metropolises He argues that Scandinavian spectators desired an unusual degree of authenticity a cultural preference for naturalism that made its way beyond theater to popular forms of museum display The Scandinavian wax museums and folk ethnographic displays of the era helped pre-cinematic spectators work out the social implications of both voyeuristic and immersive display techniques This careful study thus anticipates some of the central paradoxes of twentieth century visual culture but in a time when the mannequin and the physical relic reigned supreme and in a place where the contrast between tradition and modernity was a high stakes game Liverpool and Manchester Photographic Journal William Crookes, T.A.
