Kiraly, 2004 Monica Ali's Novel "Brick Lane". A Critical Reflection of Post-Colonialism Oliver Baum, 2014-09-11 Seminar paper from the year 2005 in the subject American Studies Literature grade 3 0 University of Marburg Institut für Anglistik und Amerikanistik course 10008 PS London in Contemporary Post Colonial Literature language English abstract This research paper deals with Monica Ali's first novel Brick Lane an epic saga about a Bangladeshi family living in London which explores the British immigration experience The novel is highly disputed with its most important aspects of identity belonging and community problems People who actually live in the estate of Brick Lane feel being patronized by Ali's novel the more or the less Just to show how critics reacted to Ali's masterpiece I will give two examples briefly Ian Jack the editor of the Granta Magazine said Monica Ali is not from Sylhet which lies in the far north east of the country next to the Indian state of Assam and was until the partition of India part of Assam and not Bengal and nor are her novel's principal characters Sylhettis however are the people her characters though not their author live among I spent a week in Sylhet When I got back to Calcutta I got into a shouting match with a taxi driver about The Satanic Verses But it's only a novel I said You know personal made up invented fiction Exactly he said Fiction Lies Brick Lane is a fine first novel but nobody should be surprised if it raises similar arguments In a way they are a compliment to it an to an ambitious idea of what fiction can still do Matthew Taylor The Guardian said Community Leaders from the neighbourhood in the East End of London that inspired Monica Ali's Booker nominated first novel Brick Lane have branded her work a despicable insult to Bangladeshis living in the area The Greater Sylhet Welfare and Development Council which represents many of Britain's 500 000 Bangladeshis has written an 18 page letter to the author outlining their objections to the shameful way the book depicts the community They feel the book portrays Bangladeshis in Brick Lane as backward uneducated and unsophisticated 2 In addition the treatment of language and time in the book is of just the same importance It makes Ali's novel somewhat unique and different While Brick Lane is meant to be satirical it can be read as a drama for in terms of living the novel focusses on the buddhist aspect that its characters have been put on earth just to suffer This research paper will consist of two main parts In the first one I will give an exact analysis and interpretation of the novel attending to the most important aspects like characterization the structure and Brick Lane Mónica Ali, 2014-05 In this

Race and Antiracism in Black British and British Asian Literature Dave Gunning,2012-01-01 Race and Antiracism in Black British and British Asian Literature offers the first comprehensive exploration of the cultural impact of the politics of race and antiracism in recent novels by black British and British Asian writers It examines works by Zadie Smith Caryl Phillips Nadeem Aslam Ferdinand Dennis and others arguing that an understanding of how race and ethnicity function in contemporary Britain can only be gained through attention to antiracism and the ways it conditions racial categories identities and models of behavior Looking at topics such as the role of Africa the reception of Islam and the meaning of multiculturalism Dave Gunning offers a detailed engagement with the nuances of antiracism and their effects on British literature and culture Territorial Terrors Gerhard Stilz,2007 Transcultural English Studies Frank

Schulze-Engler,Sissy Helff,2009 What is most strikingly new about the transcultural is its sudden ubiquity Following in the wake of previous concepts in cultural and literary studies such as creolization hybridity and syncretism and signalling a family relationship to terms such as transnationality translocality and transmigration transcultural terminology has unobtrusively but powerfully edged its way into contemporary theoretical and critical discourse The four sections of this volume denote major areas where transcultural questions and problematics have come to the fore theories of culture and literature that have sought to account for the complexity of culture in a world increasingly characterized by globalization transnationalization and interdependence realities of individual and collective life worlds shaped by the ubiquity of phenomena and experiences relating to transnational connections and the blurring of cultural boundaries fictions in literature and other media that explore these realities negotiate the fuzzy edges of ethnic or national cultures and participate in the creation of transnational public spheres as well as transcultural imaginations and memories and finally pedagogy and didactics where earlier models of teaching other cultures are faced with the challenge of coming to terms with cultural complexity both in what is being taught and in the people it is taught to and where target cultures have become elusive The idea of locating culture and literature exclusively in the context of ethnicities or nations is rapidly losing plausibility throughout an English speaking world that has long since been multi rather than monolingual Exploring the prospects and contours of Transcultural English Studies thus reflects a set of common challenges and predicaments that in recent years have increasingly moved centre stage not only in the New Literatures in English but also in British and American studies
