Come, Lord Jesus! Stephen Motyer, 2016-04-21 The second coming of Jesus Christ is the core of the biblical worldview the climax of the biblical message the cornerstone of biblical theology and the centrepiece of authentic biblical faith for the twenty first century At the heart of this bold opening statement by Stephen Motyer is the conviction that Jesus Christ is the centre of the Scriptures even though he only appears at the end For the New Testament writers Jesus Christ revolutionized their understanding of the Scriptures and gave them a new centre around which to interpret the work of God in the world and the climax of that work is the second coming of that same Jesus Christ Jesus himself used the language of the Scriptures to promise his coming again the coming of the Son of Man Hence we need the whole of Scripture to understand what the second coming means for us today The fact that the Bible ends with the prayer Come Lord Jesus Revelation 22 20 is deeply appropriate The second coming is the end of the biblical message its omega point its grand finale the denouement when all the players in the drama of earth history both human and angelic are gathered in the drawing room to hear the Master unpack the plot and give the verdict Motyer s comprehensive stimulating study is divided into two parts Part One The biblical frame examines three Old Testament passages and lays the foundation for Part Two New Testament hopes and visions which explores a series of key texts He focuses on the second coming rather than on millennialism or the end times in order to provide the fundamental biblical theology that must underlie our whole sense of God s future for his world

Jesus and His Fishermen Randal Teague, 2026-03-31 There has seldom been a more important time for Christians to reclaim Jesus and his message for themselves families communities and nation Yet Christian values have never been as unknown forgotten or sidetracked as they are now Amid the social chaos now permeating America Christianity is losing ground to other faiths on one hand and lack of faith on another It s as if the light of the Christian faith is being hidden under the proverbial basket Christianity must regain the commanding heights of public opinion in religious edifices classrooms and extracurricular settings from kindergarten through college news broadcasts and entertainment venues government law schools and courts of justice and associations of volunteers Proud acknowledgement of personal family and faith based values should replace defensive cringe at their mere mention Christians must commit themselves to adding and multiplying not subtracting and dividing We can do that in working with other believers who value each person as a unique creation Jesus and His Fishermen motivates us to achieve that goal We see evidence for this among young adults
