Remember that an artist's drawing does not always have to be a finished work. The finished work can be the result of the process.

PROBLEM 1.2

General Narrative Drawing

Make a drawing in which you combine several figures in motion in the center of your picture. In this exercise, we are looking for the general narrative. You should not have too many figures, but you should have a sense of movement. The figures should be in motion, and they should be in motion. The figures should be in motion, and they should be in motion. The figures should be in motion, and they should be in motion.

PROBLEM 1.3

Concrete Form

Make a detailed drawing of a concrete form, or object, in motion. You should use an example of the concept of form in the book during this exercise. In which the object is in motion, and the object is in motion. In which the object is in motion, and the object is in motion.
